Fourteen-year mayor of Madison resigning on Jan. 4

By DONNA KIMBRO
of the Press-Record
Madison Mayor Mike Sasyk submitted his resignation Tuesday night, effective Jan. 4, 1985. In announcing his decision to the Madison City Council, Tuesday night, Sasyk recommended that Third Ward Alderman Thomas Gordon be his replacement.

MAYOR MIKE SASYK

"I have served as mayor of this city for 14 years and have been in public service for 33 years and now I think it is time I step down and devote more time to my family and business interests," the mayor said.

ALTHOUGH Mayor Sasyk asked for support of Gordon, there apparently will be a contest for the office next April as John Belicoff, Madison city clerk, announced in August 1983 his plans to run for mayor.

When asked Tuesday night if his plans to become a mayoral candidate are still in effect, Belicoff answered, "Sure I still intend to run for the office, my plans have not changed."

"The speech of the mayor did not surprise me one bit. I knew he would endorse Gordon as candidate for mayor. I will definitely be a candidate in the mayor's race in 1985," Belicoff said.

HE ADDED, "I have been city clerk of Madison since 1967, formerly served on the Madison Board of Education for 19 years, and the Madison Fire Department for 21 years."

Gordon was elected alderman in April 1977.

Mayor Sasyk addressed the council and residents present at the meeting saying, "I want to read this statement and reflect on past achievements during my service as mayor."

IN THE LETTER, he thanked numerous city officials and former city officials, but did not mention the city clerk.

The text of Sasyk's resignation letter

Following is the text of Madison Mayor Mike Sasyk's resignation letter.

To the Members of the Madison City Council and the citizens of Madison:

This letter is probably the most difficult one that I have written in the 14 years that I have been the mayor of Madison. I will be submitting my resignation as your mayor, effective January 4, 1985. When I was first elected in 1970, I pledged to you that I would work hard and dedicate myself to projects for the betterment of all of our citizens. With the help and support of the many fine council members that have served throughout my terms in office, we have been able to successfully complete many projects for the benefit of all of our residents.

I know that I have often spoken of the following projects, but I would like to summarize them one more time and reflect back upon them with a great deal of pride and gratification. During my administration:

— All of our streets and alleys were blacktopped.

— Burglar alarms were installed in a majority of the businesses, churches and schools in our city.

— Burglar alarms were purchased and installed in many of our senior citizens' homes and cars free of charge. Smoke sensors have also been purchased and installed in many of our senior citizens' homes.

— 85 gallon trash containers were purchased for the use of our residents.

— The "Alpine Look" that many of the businesses throughout our city have adopted was initiated and coordinated, utilizing federal grant monies.

— The purchase of the Christmas decorations along Madison Avenue was initiated and coordinated.

— Our fine ambulance service, staffed by the members of the Madison Volunteer Fire Department, was initiated.

At least 11 industries decided to locate in the city of Madison.

Many of our residents have invested quite a bit of their time and money in renovating, remodeling or expanding their homes.

Finally, I would like to touch upon two projects for which my administration has received a lot of criticism in the past, but both of which have proven very beneficial for our city. (1) The David Connole Alpine Village has been very successful in its first 2½ years of operation. The sales generated there have already exceeded our initial expectations, and therefore the city has benefited from the sales tax receipts of its tenants, and will continue to benefit in the future; and (2) The sale of our alarm cable system to Southwestern Cable more than doubled our investment in a short period of time. Both of these projects have proven to be a wise investment of the funds available to the city at the time of their inception.

I realize that none of the above projects could have been accomplished without the support of the present city council and councilmen of the past, and the dedication and work that we received from our appointed officials: Elmer Smith, our former superintendent of streets and alderman; Al Hudzik, former comptroller; Judy Donaldson, comptroller; Mike Macek, present fire chief and burglar alarm coordinator; Don Bridick, police chief; Eldon Rhoads, past fire chief and presently police commissioner; Robert Robbins, present superintendent of streets; Vasil Graville, health officer; John Dutko and Curtis King, building commissioners; the late Sam Dymas, former recreation director; Shirley Greer, present director, and Earl Mosley, assistant recreation director.

I would like to recognize and extend a special note of thanks to Elmer Smith, Mike Macek, Don Bridick, Rob Robbins and Al Hudzik for their hard work and dedication to my administration and the citizens of Madison.

Now that I have announced my resignation, I would like to wish my successor the best of luck. The citizens of Madison deserve to have an intelligent, honest and dedicated individual as their leader for the next four years. I feel we currently have such an individual on our City Council, and would like to recommend that Tom Gordon receive your support in his bid to become the next mayor of Madison.

In conclusion, as I reflect over the past 14 years of my public service, I feel a great deal of joy and a genuine sense of accomplishment. The time has come and gone quickly, and I have made many personal sacrifices of my private time. I feel I owe much more of my time to my family and my business ventures. So, as I step down from my office, I would like to thank you for the confidence you have shown in me, and let you know that I will always cherish the memories of being mayor of Madison and appreciate what you've done for me and my family. Thank you.

Surprise! Winter arrives

A sudden "preview of winter" dumped nearly two inches of snow on the Quad City area Wednesday, followed by bitter cold which glazed streets with ice and caused numerous traffic accidents throughout the Quad City area.

The area escaped the six to 10 inches of snow which fell on Southern Illinois and Missouri, but bitter cold made life difficult here. The low temperature this morning was eight degrees and the wind-chill with blowing winds was minus 29 degrees. The wind was mainly from the northwest, and felt as frigid as the northwestern plains when motorists tried to start balky autos today.

THE U.S. WEATHER Bureau promises relief by tomorrow after another cold and gusty day today. Temperatures tonight are predicted in the teens, and Friday is to be sunny and warmer with a high in the 40s. Temperatures "well into the 50s" are forecast by the weekend.

Six persons were injured in a two-car collision that occurred at 6:30 p.m. yesterday on State Aid 35 in front of the Holiday Mobile Home Park. The accident, which caused a large traffic jam, was covered by state and county police.

According to a Campbell Ambulance official, four women were in a Scout vehicle and a man and woman were in the other vehicle, a pickup truck.

ALL SIX persons were transported to St. Elizabeth Medical Center. One of the women suffered several fractures, but all of the other persons only received minor injuries, according to the ambulance official. Names of those involved were not available this morning.

Also occurring yesterday, there were three minor accidents in Madison and one no-injury accident in Venice. All four were caused by icy road conditions.

With snow- and ice-covered pavements the main cause, traffic collisions in Granite City soared to 15 during the past 24 hours. There were two injuries.

PATRICIA BURCH, 18, of 2518 Iowa St. was admitted to St. Elizabeth Medical Center after a crash that damaged the front of her southbound auto in the 2500 block of Madison Avenue at 6:35 p.m. Wednesday.

Garrett will try 3 posts

By SUSANNE INDELICATO
of the Press-Record

Can a person become too involved in his community? That is the question facing Madison County Board member Don Garrett of Madison. After being sworn in to that board Monday, Garrett now holds three governmental board positions. Opinions issued by the Illinois Attorney General's office indicate that Garrett's positions on three separate boards may constitute a conflict of interest.

GARRETT, 51, is the first black to serve on the county board. In addition to his duties on the county board, Garrett has been a member of the Madison City Council for the past nine years, and a member of the Madison Community Unit 12 school board for the past five years.

Garrett says that at this time, he doesn't plan to give up any of his posts. "Because, number one, I think I can handle the jobs, and number two, because the people were well aware when they voted for me that I have the two other jobs, and I think they expect me to keep the posts."

"The only time I'd consider resigning from one of my posts is when I find that I'm unable to do a good job at either of them," he added.

SHAWN DENNEY, of the opinions division for the Illinois Attorney General's office, told the Press-Record that not being able to perform adequately in each position does constitute a conflict of interest, according to the Common Law Doctrines.

Those doctrines state that a person should not hold two or more public positions if it is prohibited by the state constitution or a statute, or if the person "cannot fully and faithfully discharge the duties of both."

Three opinions issued by the attorney general's office, Denney notes, are based on that doctrine. A 1972 opinion held that a county board member could not be an alderman. A 1973 opinion said that a school board member could not be a county board member, and a 1980 opinion stated that a mayor could not be a county board member. Denney says the latter opinion could be applicable to aldermen.

THE REASON THE opinions were issued, he adds, is due to the possibility of conflicts between two governmental entities.

The county board, for example, votes to distribute community development and court fine monies to the cities.

Denney notes that opinions issued by the attorney general's office are merely advisory, and that courts are not bound by those opinions.

"The only way to test the right to hold an office is to file a quo warranto motion," he explained. But the state's attorney's office and the attorney general's office retain first-

Ideas on school reform pour from regional conference

As a statewide citizens' effort known as the Illinois Project for School Reform (IPSR) concludes its work of the last three months, discussions of the groups are being funneled to a State Advisory Committee which will meet in two weeks for six days to hammer out a draft report suggesting ways to improve education in Illinois.

The project involved citizens groups in each of the state's representative districts. State Rep. Sam Wolf (D-Granite City) chaired the groups in the 110th and 11th Representative Districts.

WOLF'S GROUP met twice to prepare preliminary proposals which then were presented this weekend to a regional conference at Rend Lake College in Ina, Ill.

Among the participants at the regional conference were Gary R. Schneider, Press-Record editor, and Duane Rankin, director of the Area Adult Vocational Service Center on the Edwardsville campus of Southern Illinois University and former director of Venice-Lincoln Technical Center.

The group made several recommendations, including a plea for consideration of either a constitutional amendment vote to force the state to live up to its obligation to fully fund the School Aid Formula or for study of the possibility of a half-cent increase in the state income tax to raise another $650 million a year for schools.

MICHAEL BAKALIS, director of the Illinois Project for School Reform and former state superintendent of public education, addressed the approximately 150 citizens at the regional conference.

He noted, "1985 will be a legislatively-devoted year primarily for education." He said the IPSR will provide important ideas for the advisory committee to consider as it meets for six consecutive days in two weeks to work out a preliminary draft report on how education systems can be improved in the state.

The draft report then will be sent to participating members of the IPSR for comments before a final report to the legislature is approved.

BAKALIS NOTED in his opening remarks at the regional conference that, although 78 percent of the adults in the country do not have children in the public schools at the current time, there was "upswing in confidence in education" in 1983 for the first time in 10 years, according to polls of educational attitudes.

He said the polls showed that most Illinoisans believe "the essence of the American dream is found in a solid education and that schools are the vehicle for social and business growth."

He praised the volunteers in the IPSR, saying, "The only significant change is the one that comes from the grassroots up. Change that comes from the top down does not seem to last long."

ALSO ADDRESSING the conference was Lawrence Freeman, dean of the College of Education at Governors State University and a consultant to the IPSR. Freeman noted that the state has not shirked its responsibility for funding education and is pouring large sums of money into secondary schools. Some of the state expenditures include the majority of the $2.4 billion a year earned by teachers, $50 million a year for the preparation of new teachers and minimal for the continued development of teachers through continued education and in-service seminars.

Education as one of few vocations women typically chose is dying out, thus reducing the number of women available, Freeman said, noting that six times as many women obtained business degrees in 1981 as in 1971.

Low salaries for teachers are another factor making it difficult to attract good teachers. Students entering college now indicate in polls that the salary of a profession is a far more important consideration now than in the past when it comes to choosing a career.

FRUSTRATION caused by a lack of opportunities for advancement, other than into administration, causes many teachers to leave the field. By age 40, nearly 90 percent of those who entered the teaching field are leaving it, Freeman said.

A recommended starting salary of $20,000 a year is among the considerations of the IPSR, but there are concerns in districts paying low salaries because of budget difficulties. A $20,000 starting salary may bring the salaries of newcomers too close to the salaries of teachers of many years, causing problems for those districts.

Freeman suggested that tax incentives be given businesses and industries to sponsor scholarships, sabbaticals, summer work for teachers and help in other ways make the teaching profession a more attractive one and lure better students into teaching.

HE DISCUSSED attempts in other states to require higher SAT scores of students entering teaching courses, five-year intern programs for teachers, periodic re-evaluation of working teachers and standard examinations before teachers are licensed, but said most such programs have either bogged down in paperwork and red tape or have had the effect of discouraging bright students from entering the teaching field.

Group sessions at the regional conference concentrated on school finance, standards and the role of curriculum, developing a strategy to involve the 78 percent who do not have children in schools in school-related activities, teacher preparation, delivery of educational services and school/business partnerships.

All suggestions reaching general consensus in the group sessions will be passed on to the advisory council for its consideration in formulating the draft plan, which should be ready for study by IPSR volunteers in January.

Protested phone taxes released

Attorney General Neil F. Hartigan announced today that more than $46 million in taxes held in protest will be released to local governments following separate judgments issued this week against three Illinois utilities.

Courts in Sangamon and Cook counties ordered General Telephone, Continental Telephone and Illinois Bell Telephone to pay the taxes which have remained in an escrow account pending a decision on the constitutionality of a law prohibiting combined apportionment as a means for computing invested capital tax liability.

The money will be deposited in the Personal Property Replacement Tax Fund.

The Invested Capital Tax was enacted in 1973 to help replace revenue lost to local governments when the personal property tax was abolished. In their lawsuits the utilities argued that a law prohibiting combined apportionment, or considering all closely-associated groups of a corporation as one when computing taxes, was unconstitutional.

The General Assembly passed a law stating explicitly that combined apportionment was not meant to be used to compute invested capital taxes and the Supreme Court has upheld that law.

"This action means local governments will be guaranteed their fair share of the personal property replacement tax," Hartigan said.

Complaint against city to be refilled

Lenn Scroggins, attorney for Granite City real estate businessman John Krekovich, says that a lawsuit against the city of Granite City will be refilled in the Circuit Court, Third Judicial Circuit, "within a short time."

Krekovich is suing the city for $8,200 in sales commission he claims he could have obtained had the city rezoned two pieces of property that Krekovich was representing for sale.

The properties, located at 29th Street and Madison Avenue and at 2917 E. 23rd Street, currently are zoned residential. Several years ago, Krekovich asked city officials to rezone the property for commercial uses. He contends that the sale of the property was contingent on the rezoning. The city denied the rezoning request.

In June of this year, Krekovich filed a lawsuit against the city because of the zoning denials. Last month, Circuit Judge William Johnson dismissed the complaint "without prejudice with leave to amend in 30 days."

Scroggins says the dismissal with the court's permission to amend the complaint and refile it is not unusual in civil lawsuits, and that an amended lawsuit will be refilled. "It is my intention," said Mr. Krekovich's desire, to amend the complaint and continue our case against the city."

Irvin C. Slate Jr., who represents the city in the cases, said that Judge Johnson dismissed the lawsuit last month because "there was not a clear statement of the complaint," which was State's argument in his motion for dismissal of the suit.

In addition to the actual damages, Krekovich had sought $250,000 in punitive damages, but the punitive damage request was dismissed by the court on Oct. 11.

Burglary charge filed against youth

Jeffrey A. Beasley, 17, of 3612 Kirkpatrick Homes, was charged Tuesday with burglary in connection with a weekend break-in at the home of George V. Heth, 3030 Washington Ave.

Reported missing from the residence were a home computer valued at $2,500, an imagewriter printer worth $500, a video cassette recorder, also worth $500, and a large bottle of coins with an estimated value of $200.

Beasley had been arrested at 3:25 p.m. Monday on warrants alleging misdemeanor theft and two charges of battery. He also was booked for resisting arrest after he ran from his home and struggled with an officer.

In a court appearance on the warrants and resisting charge at 11:10 a.m. Tuesday, Beasley entered an innocent plea, with bond being set at $300. He was still in custody when the burglary charge was filed.

Valentine to oppose Echols for mayor

By VALERIE EVENDEN
of the Press-Record

Venice Fourth Ward Alderman Victor A. Valentine Sr. will be a candidate for mayor of Venice in the April 1985 election, he announced Wednesday.

Valentine, 42, a Venice resident for 40 years and a U. S. Air Force veteran, has served as alderman on the Venice City Council for the past six years.

Looking ahead, it appears that Valentine will oppose incumbent Mayor Tyrone Echols, who has not yet formally announced his candidacy, but is expected to run. A reelection committee was organized on the mayor's behalf in recent weeks, the Press-Record learned.

"NEW HORIZONS" is the theme selected by Valentine for his upcoming campaign.

"Unity is my scope and I see people working hand-in-hand...people working together for the betterment of all."

"If elected, I will have an advisory group made up of people from the total community—poor and rich and black and white. So that everybody has a voice in the city and becomes involved, not just a few," Valentine said Wednesday.

"IN THE COMING WEEKS, I will be asking for all the help I can get on a voluntary basis, either donations to my campaign or volunteers to work on my behalf," the mayoral candidate said.

"I sincerely hope it will be a gentleman's campaign without name throwing. We all have to live in the same city afterward," he added.

Noting that he has already been asked if he will support a slate in the city's upcoming election, Valentine responded, "I believe people should be independent and should vote on an individual's capabilities and for someone who will work diligently with the mayor."

VALENTINE RESIDES with his wife, the former JoAnn Hamm, at 1024 Logan Ave., Venice. Mrs. Valentine has been employed the past six years at Granite City Steel.

The couple has three sons, Victor II, who is 18 years old and in his freshman year at Illinois State University, Anthony, 16, a junior at Madison High School, and Vincent, 13, a freshman student at the same school.

The Venice alderman spent four years in the U. S. Air Force during the Vietnam War and has served as commander and vice commander of American Legion Post 799 of Venice. Valentine is a co-founder of the People's Organization to Benefit the Children of Venice. He also has served as past internal affairs officer for the Bond-Madison counties American Legion and is a past board member of the YMCA.

A graduate of Dunbar Elementary School and Madison High School, he also attended Colorado Technical College and Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville.

THE CANDIDATE is employed as a fisher at Consolidated Aluminum Corp. (Conelco), where he has worked for 20 years. Previously, he was employed two years at the A.O. Smith plant.

Valentine is a trustee at Bethel AME Church in Venice.

In his 1983 campaign for alderman, Valentine cited the need for increased awareness of problems facing senior citizens and youth and long-term job opportunities.

New Life Center seeks donations

The New Life Love Center, 1909 State St., is preparing to help the area needy during the holiday season and is in need of donations of various items to complete baskets.

Clothing, food and toys are needed by the non-denominational outreach group that does not receive any federal or state funds to continue their work, according to the Rev. Daniel J. Moore, pastor.

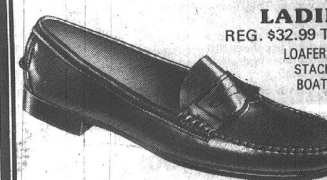

All projects are supported by donations from individuals and churches and those who wish to contribute are requested to call the center at 451-2022 or write to Post Office Box 372, Granite City, Rev. Moore added.

Visit to the Arizona Memorial adds meaning to infamous day

By SUSAN SIGNAIGO-WEICH
at the Press-Record

Having just visited the U.S.S. Arizona Memorial in Honolulu last month, this year's 43rd anniversary of the attack on Pearl Harbor has a certain significance to me.

Since I am only 25 years old, I was not alive during the actual attack. Maybe that's why Pearl Harbor's story has never seemed real to me before this year.

When I went to Hawaii, however, I felt an obligation to go to the memorial. Whether I was drawn by a sense of duty or a sense of patriotism, I'm not sure—I just knew I had to go.

I made reservations to go on a tour of the memorial the morning after I arrived. I wanted to make sure I got on the tour that actually goes out on the monument, since some tours only cruise around the structure.

When the day arrived for the tour, our group was shuttled off and arrived at the monument office before it even opened. The line already stretched about 200 yards from the door—and there were still more buses arriving.

Apparently I wasn't the only person who felt an obligation to attend the memorial.

Off to the left, there were several U.S. ships sounding their morning orders. I thought to myself that this was probably much like the day when the bombing occurred. It was about 7:55 a.m. It was a Sunday.

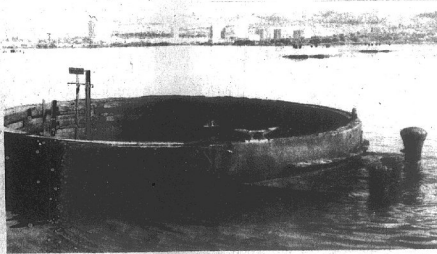

The bombing that day in 1941 started at 7:55 a.m. The men were probably very relaxed, being a Sunday and all. Who would suspect a sneak attack by the enemy?

One thing that had puzzled me, though, was why the crew of the Arizona was sleeping when the bombing occurred. I'd always thought the Navy was a little stricter than that.

What I found out later, was that the crew of the Arizona had the special privilege of sleeping in that morning because they placed second in a band contest. The ship's band had played late into the night.

Before going on the Arizona, the visitors were shown a movie by the state's parks department.

The movie began by showing

footage of the Arizona as it is today, buried under the water. In the background, a man was whispering the names of all of the men aboard the ship who were killed. It gave me an eerie feeling and I couldn't help but feel choked up.

Afterwards, we lined up outside of the theater and waited our turn to get onto a shuttle boat to take us out to the memorial.

The tour guide, a wave in the U.S. Navy, told us that the memorial is built over the actual wreckage of the Arizona, although it does not touch the ship at any point.

The middle of the memorial has a dip in it to represent the sense of loss that our country feels for the men who died aboard the Arizona. The sides of the memorial stand firm and tall, however, symbolizing the strength of our nation today.

Once on the memorial, I was overcome by the relative silence of the people aboard it. People peered over the sides of the open building, looking curiously into the water, to see if they could catch a glimpse of the body of the ship.

I felt a little uncomfortable, knowing that I was standing over the grave of more than 1,000 fathers, brothers, sons and husbands of people that I did not know. These people did not know me either, but they had sacrificed their lives for the freedom I enjoy today.

A tour guide of Japanese descent who was aboard the memorial called the group around and told us about the attack. He said some of the footage of the attack we had seen on the movie had been shot by his father. He said his mother and sister had been at church during the attack.

He talked about the odd position his family had been in because of the Japanese attack. He also spoke about the Japanese people today, whose nationality represents the largest group of visitors at the memorial.

He said the Japanese are very curious about the attack, as well as the American tribute that has been paid to our war dead. He also said the Japanese are the largest contributors to the upkeep of the memorial.

After leaving the structure, I felt like the infamous attack was brought a little closer to home. I also felt proud that such a large number of people still felt an obligation to pay their respects to men who gave their lives for their country 43 years ago.

Chase youth from GCHS parking area

An officer waiting for fans to leave a parking area at Granite City high school after a weekend basketball game alleged seeing a pickup truck slide to a stop near a group of people. One of the passengers, Jeffrey S. Adams, 18, of 2605 E. 24th St., got out of the truck and reportedly threw a pack of cigarettes in a trash can. The pack was retrieved and allegedly contained a cannabis cigarette.

Adams was charged with unlawful possession of cannabis and being a minor in possession of alcohol. The latter charge related to a bottle of whiskey allegedly found in the vehicle.

Darris Joe Stavely III, 17, of Rural Route One, Box 407, driver of the truck, was told to park the vehicle, but allegedly left the lot at high speed. He was pursued and stopped and was charged with speeding, fleeing from a police officer, disobeying a stop sign and being a minor in possession of alcohol.

Philip N. Milianis, 17, of 2020 Clark Ave., another passenger in the truck, was charged with being a minor in possession of alcohol. He was released after posting a $52 cash bond.

Stavely was released upon posting a $52 cash bond and his driver's license and Adams was freed on a $104 cash bond.

WALLET IS MISSING

Dennis Reynolds of Champaign, Ill., told police at 3:05 p.m. Monday that someone stole a leather wallet, containing a Firearm Owner's Identification Card and Social Security card, a driver's license and other personal papers, from his auto while the vehicle was parked at the Granite City Trust Bank's branch at 24th Street and Madison Avenue.

INTRUDERS KICK DOOR

A 19-inch television, $35 cash, a power mug and 36 sterling silver items, valued at $300, were stolen in a burglary at the home of Eugene Fox, 3905 Village Lane, he reported during the weekend. Entry was gained by prying a door knob, then kicking the door inward, shattering the frame and door jamb.

NAMEOKI CANDIDATES. Current officials and office hopefuls have joined in Nameoki Township to form the Township Improvement Party (TIP) as a unified party in the April 1995 township election. Candidates are, from the left: Tax Assessor Carl Macios, seeking re-election; Tax Collector Norman Hall, seeking a trustee position; Kenneth Davis, trustee candidate; Trustee Joseph Garcia, seeking re-election; Supervisor Harry Briggs, seeking re-election; Town Clerk Donald Lee Ridgeway, seeking re-election; Highway Commissioner W. Lee Adams, seeking re-election; Trustee Dell Whitsett, seeking re-election, and Steve Isenbarg, candidate for tax collector. The group pledges to use their "experience, abilities and enthusiasm to make Nameoki Township an even better place to live, work and do business."

DRIVER HITS TRAIN ON OLD ROUTE 3 AT 29TH
William G. Shemona, 28, of 2115 Dewey Ave., was charged with failure to reduce speed to avoid an accident after his auto allegedly struck the side of a moving Norfolk & Western Railroad train. He was not reported injured.
The train was being backed across old Route 3 near 29th Street at the time the early morning mishap occurred.
Terry Aldridge, 36, of Decatur, railroad engineer, said the crossing signal lights were working.

Blood drive here Dec. 20

"The greatest gift a person can give is the gift of life," says Sister Mary Thomas, president of St. Elizabeth Medical Center in Granite City. "As in the past, area residents are being asked to participate in a blood drive."
The drive, which will be held on Thursday, Dec. 20, is open to all healthy persons, 17 years or older. The drive will be held in Pappel Hall at SEMC from 11 a.m. to 4 p.m. Donors over 66 years of age will need a recent health statement from their physician.

"Blood may be donated every eight weeks. Donors need not know their blood type."

"Each person gives less than a pint of blood," said Pat Davis, SEMC associate health nurse, "and the after-effects are minimal, since the body replaces the liquid portion of the blood quickly."

"The energy loss might be compared to the exertion required for a half-mile walk. The giving of blood takes from seven to 15 minutes. To help replenish fluids, donors will be served refreshments afterward."
For more information, Quad-Cityans may contact St. Elizabeth Medical Center at 798-3028 or call the public relations department at 798-3167.

BURGLARS GET VCR AND COMPUTER AMONG LOOT
Leo Nigehossian, 917 Niedringhaus Ave., returned home late last week to find burglars had forced open the rear door of his apartment, splintering the door frame.

Missing were a Commodore 64 computer, a disk drive and printer, a color television, a video cassette recorder, a portable phone, a clock-radio, a push-button telephone, a full-length fur coat and a fur jacket.

Michel to advise on future judge choices

U.S. House Minority Leader Robert Michel will succeed U.S. Senator Charles H. Percy in recommending new federal judges.

Sen. Percy has just announced two recommendations to fill newly-created vacancies on the U.S. District Court in the Northern and Southern Districts of Illinois. The seats were created when the Bankruptcy Amendments and Federal Judgeship Act was signed into law by President Ronald Reagan, July 1983.

Percy recommended that Brian B. Duff be named to fill a vacancy in the Northern District and that William D. Stiehl be named to fill a vacancy in the Southern District.

Duff, 44, has served as a judge of the Circuit Court of Cook County since 1976. A former member of the Illinois General Assembly, Duff and his wife, Florence, reside in Wilmette and have five children.

Stiehl, 59, is with the law firm of Stiehl & Stiehl. He previously served as assistant state's attorney for St. Clair County and as special assistant Illinois attorney general.

Percy also recommended that Kenneth B. Meyers be considered as an alternate for the Southern District vacancy. Meyers, 40, has served as a U.S. magistrate for the U.S. District Court Southern District since 1975. A resident of Mt. Vernon, Meyers holds a juris doctor degree from Indiana University School of Law and a bachelor degree from Eastern Illinois University.

"These candidates are well respected and have excellent legal backgrounds," said Percy. "Their experience and training make them well qualified to serve on the federal bench."

It has been the traditional practice in each state for the senior senator of the president's party to make recommendations to the president to fill federal judgeships. Percy's recommendations were made after an extensive screening and rating process by the Illinois Bar Association, local Bar Associations, and special local peer review committees.

The "Percy process" for making judicial recommendations since 1970 has been cited as a model for use by senators in other states by the American Bar Association.

Percy has turned over to Congressman Michel of Peoria his candidate review files for remaining judicial vacancies in the Central and Northern districts. Michel met with Republican members of the Illinois congressional delegation early this month to discuss future judicial nominations.

166th birthday of Illinois as a state

Illinois' statehood began 166 years ago, and Dec. 3-4 is being proclaimed Illinois History Week to mark the event.

Statehood Day was Monday, Dec. 3. On Dec. 3, 1818, President James Monroe signed the resolution establishing Illinois as the 21st state.

The first State Constitutional Convention had completed its work in Kaskaskia the previous August. Election of state officials was held in September, in a readiness for approval of the resolution by Congress. When confirmation of statehood reached Illinois, Governor Shadrach Bond called the first Illinois legislature into session by proclamation.

Christmas wish granted to Mitchell fire victims

Thomas Miks says he doesn't know who Phyllis Morris Mein is. Nor did he know, until Tuesday, what she had done for him.

What Mrs. Mein did was enter Miks' name in St. Louis radio station KTVB's Christmas wish contest. And Miks' family, which lost its home and belongings in a Nov. 8 fire, has been granted a wish made by Mrs. Mein.

"I knew of the Miks family and I wrote and told how the family had lost everything and that the baby was in the hospital," Mrs. Mein told the Press-Record Tuesday.

A week ago, she relates, radio station officials called her, asking for more information about the Miks family, and last Friday, those officials called her again to tell her that her Christmas wish for the Miks family had been granted.

KY88 and Schnucks Markets will donate new clothing, shoes, Christmas toys, bedding, cookware, a decorated Christmas tree and food to the family, according to Rene Engert, KY88 spokesman.

She says that KY88 and Schnucks will spend more than $10,000 to help about 100 needy families during the Christmas season. Those families are chosen from the hundreds of requests the station receives between Thanksgiving and Christmas.

The amount of spending, she explains, is based on the degree of need. As for the Miks family, station officials will shop for their gifts this weekend or early next week.

The station spokesman says the family may pick up their gifts themselves or Mrs. Mein may pick up the gifts and deliver them to the family.

When contacted by the Press-Record Tuesday, Miks said he had no knowledge of his selection for the Christmas wish program. But, he added, "Everything looks better now. It's nice to know there's people out there who are willing to help."

Miks, 34, and his wife, Mary, 27, are living with Miks' parents in Granite City. Their 16-month-old daughter, Kristin, is recovering from burns and smoke inhalation at St. John's Mercy Medical Center in St. Louis. Mrs. Miks has been released from the hospital, where she received treatment for burns after the fire.

Miks says he expects his daughter will be released from the hospital in a week to 10 days. She underwent the last of her skin graft operations Tuesday and doctors plan to remove a tube from her throat within the next few days.

A Nov. 8 fire, believed to be caused by a heat lamp in an outside doghouse, destroyed the Miks' home at 885 S. Thorngate Drive, Mich.

Miks says his family will live with his parents until he receives cost-of-living money from the insurance company. He intends to rent a home for the family until next spring when he will consider rebuilding his home. Whether he rebuilds or not, he says, depends on the insurance money received from the fire.

Anchor buoys near Alton locks and dam

All navigation interests are being advised that, once again, there are three anchor buoys installed below (south of) Locks and Dam 26, Alton, mile 20.9 on the upper Mississippi River. These buoys are to be used by tows awaiting lockage in the next sequence of upbound tows.

Towboats must stay with the tows at all times while attached to a buoy. Additionally, these buoys are not to be used for floating purposes. A maximum of two tows with no more than 15 barges per tow will be permitted to tie to any buoy.

Both locks at Locks and Dam 26 will be closed during daylight hours Monday through Wednesday, Dec. 10-12, for removal of a damaged pier barge and replacement of a repaired pier barge in the upper guideway extension.

Mensa sets deadline on scholarship essays

The deadline is March 1 for a 1984-85 scholarship essay contest which has been announced by the St. Louis Chapter of Mensa, the "high IQ club," and the Mensa Education & Research Foundation. Awards of $1,000, $500, $200 and $100 will be made in each of Mensa's nine regions, including the St. Louis area.

It is not necessary to be a member of Mensa to apply for the scholarships. Awards are unrestricted as to age, race, sex, level of post-secondary education and status. The sole requirement for the Mensa scholarships is that the applicant be enrolled, for the year following the award, in a degree program in an accredited American institution of post-secondary education.

To obtain application forms, Quad-Cityans may submit a request to Mensa Scholarship, P.O. Box 584, Collinsville, 62234. A stamped self-addressed envelope must accompany the request, the scholarship committee said.

RING SET MISSING

Madison County Federal sets longer hours

Paul F. Sodko, president of Madison County Federal Savings and Loan announced that the financial institution will be open Saturday mornings, effective Dec. 8, and that the drive-up will remain open to 6 p.m. on Thursdays, effective today.

"We are offering these extended hours to better serve the needs of our customers," said Sodko. "We recently conducted a market survey of our customers in Granite City and the move to extending Thursday drive-up hours and Saturday opening of the lobby and drive-up were high on the list of their priorities. We also have opened a second drive-up at our Granite City office to speed up service," he said.

Madison County Federal Savings and Loan also has offices in Collinsville, Ginger Creek and Troy and assets of $120 million. "As we continue to grow, we will continue to add services to better serve the needs of the area's financial community," Sodko pledged.

Jr. high school plans spirit week activities

Coolidge Junior High School officials have announced that Dec. 10 through 14 will be observed as School Spirit Week. The Student Council is sponsoring a number of activities during the week.

The week will commence with a pep rally and end with a "Color Day" and a "Video Trax" dance. Activities through the week will include a Mr. and Miss School Spirit Contest, Sweet Suit Day and Dress-Up Day.

School officials are encouraging all Coolidge students to participate in the events.
Students are also collecting canned foods that week for the Salvation Army Christmas baskets and are participating in the Toys for Tots campaign.

Ave. had been northbound when the left rear of his car skidded forward and the vehicle spun around, heading backward and crossing the center line. Its rear collided with the front of the oncoming Burch auto. Corvett was ticketed for driving too fast for the street conditions. Both vehicles were towed from the scene.

MARY E. KIMBRO, 33, of 2925 Denver St. was taken by ambulance to St. Elizabeth Medical Center at 9:40 a.m. Wednesday after a crash involving her pickup truck and a truck tractor driven by David L. Sumner, 48, of 2823 Buxton Ave.

She was driving eastward up the western end of the 19th Street overpass when her vehicle skidded on ice and crossed the center line.

The left side of the pickup hit the left front of the westbound truck tractor. The right front of the latter vehicle then struck the concrete overpass wall. Sumner was ticketed for driving while his license was suspended.

As Mark W. Carney, 21, of 2025 Bryan Ave. changed lanes while driving north in the 3000 block of Madison Avenue at 1 a.m. today, his auto skidded on ice across the southbound lanes.

THE CAR STRUCK AN Illinois Power Co. post, cracking the post and knocking an electric wire to the street.

The auto, damaged about the front, was located later at 29th and State streets.

At a restaurant at 27th Street and Madison Avenue, Carney was charged with improper lane use, driving too fast for conditions and leaving the accident area.

RELEASED ON BOND

pointed assistant state's attorney to advise the county board, said that Allen may be looking into whether or not Garrett should continue serving all three boards. So far, he said, no opinion has been announced.

"If I'm informed or made aware of a decision, I will contact you," O'Neill told a reporter.

Garrett contends that his activities on the three boards may not constitute a conflict of interest. "I've been on the school board and city council for over 10 years, and I don't remember anything coming across the board that would be a conflict of interest."

HE POINTS OUT that the Illinois legislature has passed a law allowing township supervisors to serve on the county board and that the supervisors were thereby "cleared of conflict of interest."

Garrett calls the opinions issued by the attorney general's office, when compared to the law discriminatory. "Why should one class of local political officers be excluded while others are not. They should be subject to the same set of rules. If I meet any challenger, I take it to court and I would argue discrimination along those lines."

Ironically, the attorney general's office has held that the offices of township supervisor and county board member are "incompatible," Denney says. "But the General Assembly enacted statutes that those offices are compatible."

THE REASON the legislature may have allowed township supervisors to hold county board positions, Denney explains, is because county boards were once comprised only of township supervisors.

Meanwhile, Garrett says, no one has stepped forward to challenge his positions on the three governmental boards.

Slight delay on school bond sale

By BILL WINTER

of the Press-Record

Tax law reform talk has temporarily confused the current bond market, raising the possibility that may be wiser to sell a $6,000,000 Granite City school bond issue in January or February instead of this month.

The school district will proceed to levy for the working cash fund bonds, probably Dec. 18. Voters approved the bond issue Nov. 6 as a means of converting most of the district's $7.6 million short-term debt to long-term.

MONEY MAY RUN OUT in February if the bonds have not yet been marketed. It was noted by Don M. Lindberg, the investment banker who has been working on selling the bonds.

School Finance Director Norman Owca said that, in the event a cash flow problem develops in February, a financial institution has agreed to loan operating funds for a time.

Lindberg praised the accuracy of Owca's spending and income projections. The banker estimated that the $6.6 million in bonds to be retired over a 10-year period can be sold at an interest rate of 10 to 10.5 percent.

INTEREST COSTS on the $6.6 million could total $11 million but some savings may be possible through a refunding program several years from now, if interest rates have decreased by then, Lindberg said. He urged inclusion of a call provision, under which bonds can be retired early.

Lindberg said five-year bond retirement would raise the tax rate more than the 40-cent increase outlined to taxpayers; if there were 15-year bonds, the 11th through 15th years probably would be hard to sell, increasing the interest.

It is necessary to levy before Dec. 31 to avoid a year's delay and then a double-size bond levy, he added.

TENTATIVE PLANS call for the first principal payment Dec. 1, 1985, with interest paid then and June 1, 1986. Annual payments will be arranged to be about the same, slightly more than $1,100,000.

Lindberg agreed to stay in close touch with the bond market and advise the district when he believes the market has stabilized.

Because it is not known precisely how much the bond issue will cost, the first levy may be set higher than needed. But Madison County Clerk Evelyn Bowles next spring will extend only the amount actually required for principal and interest, it was noted.

Candlelight vigil against drunk driving is Monday

"National Drunk and Drugged Driver Awareness Week" is Dec. 9 to 15. Candlelight vigils will be held throughout the state during this week.

RID-Illinois Metro East Chapter, will hold its candlelight vigil on Monday, Dec. 10, at 7 p.m. on the lower level of the Cottonwood Mall Shopping Center in Edwardsville on Route 159.

The invitation to participate has been extended to all schools, churches and groups, such as the Chemical, People and Compassionate Friends.

Participants attending should bring a candle in a suitable container in order to prevent wax from dripping.

There will be a short service in memory of all who have been injured or killed by a drunk driver. At end of service, participants will light their candles and march from the mall around parking lot, then back into mall.

New school plan alters goals, mandates and fund distribution

Educational and financial reforms for Illinois schools are provided in State Superintendent of Education Donald Gill's proposed fiscal year 1986 (July 1985-June 1986) budget, that requests a $904 million increase in state funds for elementary and secondary education. Hearings were conducted this week.

Gill's preliminary budget includes the board's proposals for educational reform and his recommended revisions in how the state finances and distributes funds to schools.

"This proposed budget supports the programs that are needed to focus on learning and accountability; improve the quality of local educational personnel, and address the issue of adequate and equitable distribution of state funds for elementary and secondary education," he said.

For the first time, Gill used the Resource Cost Model (RCM) concept to develop his proposed budget figures for elementary and secondary education. The concept is a part of his preliminary recommendations to provide finance reform.

The new cost-based financing method, which determines how much it costs local school districts to provide services, incorporates into one entitlement state aid for regular elementary and secondary education, special education, gifted education, vocational education, bilingual education, and transportation.

In determining the amount of state funds for a district under the RCM, the process also takes into consideration cost differences at tributable to the location of the district as well as the regular and special needs of students unique to each district.

Of the $904 million increase sought, $729 million is for the financial reform portion of the budget.

The educational reform package of the budget totals $134 million of the requested $904 million increase. This package includes $5.4 million in grants to school districts to implement the board's proposed definition of schooling and statements of student learning outcomes that would replace current statutory requirements for academic subjects and specific time allotments for those subjects.

The broadly defined statements in six learning areas — mathematics, physical and biological sciences, fine arts, language arts, social sciences, and physical development and health — outline what students in grades kindergarten to 12 should know and be able to do as a result of their schooling.

The $5.4 million would assist districts with development of local objectives, assessment procedures for students and programs, curriculum improvements, and public reporting of how well students are learning.

Another reform effort proposed by the board is to improve the quality of educational personnel.

The budget includes $19.3 million for staff development and $358,800 for scholarships to retrain or train teachers in subject areas experiencing teacher shortages.

Increasing the minimum required salary level for beginning full-time teachers with a bachelor's degree is another reform effort to improve the quality of personnel.

At present, the state set minimum salary level for a beginning teacher is $10,000. The superintendent is recommending that the level be raised to $20,000 by the 1987-88 school year.

The task would be accomplished over a three-year period and would start with a 1985-86 appropriation of $86.3 million.

Also, the reform costs include $1 million to develop pilot programs for services to handicapped children, ages of birth to three; $14.2 million to expand services for bilingual education; and $13.1 million for alternative education programs that would serve students, ages 15 to 18, based on the board's recommended extension of the compulsory attendance age to 18.

In the fiscal 1986 budget, under special programs, Gill proposes $2.6 million for the truants alternative program; $2 million for high impact training programs; $2 million for computer consortia; $1.5 million for education for technology employment; $200,000 for the Illinois Principals Academy; and $1.2 million for assistance for equal educational opportunities.

Funding levels proposed for categorical not covered by the RCM include $23 million for textbooks; $1.2 million for orphanages and state-owned housing; $6.5 million for state adult education; and $14.1 million for the lunch and breakfast programs.

Gill's proposed educational and financial reform budget for Illinois schools totals $2.9 billion in state general funds for program administration. In addition, it includes $14.4 million in state driver education funds and $472.4 million in federal funds.

His proposal notes that the teacher retirement systems require a fiscal '86 appropriation of $457 million to provide for full state contribution to payout benefits.

SERVE ACTIVE WARRANT

Workshops on lending in state

The Illinois Department of Commerce and Community Affairs is sponsoring half-day orientation workshops to further acquaint the more than 300 lending institutions participating in the Lender Commitment Program with DCCA's financial and non-financial services.

Remaining workshops are: Monday, Dec. 10 — Capital Plaza, 418 E. Jefferson St., Springfield; and Tuesday, Dec. 11 — Holiday Inn, Route 13, 800 E. Main St., Carbondale.

The workshops last from 9 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. Registration fee, which includes a continental breakfast and all training material, is $10. The fee is to be paid at the door.

Under the Lender Commitment Program, lending institutions make available a certain amount of their loan dollars to help small- and medium-sized business expand or locate in Illinois. To date, more than $1.5 billion has been earmarked across the state for long-term economic development loans.

Participants at the workshops will survey the advantages of using various state, Small Business Administration, and Housing and Urban Development programs to provide long-term, low-interest guaranteed or secondary mortgage financing.

Using job training funds as an equity substitute will also be discussed. The presentations will include specific case studies to illustrate cash flow implications and the security position of various programs.

Workshop leaders will be DCCA marketing and finance managers and Bob Davenport, director of National Development Council, NDC is a leading private consulting firm for public and private business financing assistance.

To register or receive additional information, the DCCA telephone is 217-785-6355.

SURGERY IS REQUIRED AFTER BEING STRUCK

Walter Rozycski Jr., of the 1790 block of Bremen Avenue informed police at 5:40 p.m. Monday that he suffered an injury during the weekend when struck by a man in the parking lot of a Washington Avenue tavern.

According to a plastic surgeon, whom the injured man consulted Monday, Rozycski was to undergo surgery Tuesday for a severe orbital fracture to his eye socket.

Reports said Rozycski came out of the tavern and saw his friend fighting with another man. When he intervened, his friend ran from the lot and Rozycski was "turned on" Rozycski, hitting his right temple with a fist and breaking Rozycski's glasses.

Bake sale to benefit leukemia victim

Friends and relatives of the James DeCoursey family of Granite City will be baking up some goodwill this weekend. The group is planning a bake sale from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. Saturday, Dec. 8, at Gill's Department Store in the Bollemore Village Shopping Center to raise money to help defray the medical expenses the family faces since 3-year-old Catherine "Catie" DeCoursey was found to have leukemia.

Last month, the family learned that Catie is suffering from acute lymphoblastic leukemia. Since then, Catie has started a three-year medical treatment procedure consisting of chemotherapy, drug treatments and transfusions in an attempt to arrest the sometimes fatal disease.

According to fund-raising chairman Pamela Simpson, Catie's identical-twin sister, Sara, also will require periodic testing because there is a risk that she also could develop the disease. So far, initial tests have not found leukemia symptoms in Sara.

Miss Simpson says Catie's parents, Jim and Karen, do not have hospitalization insurance. Mrs. DeCoursey is employed as a teachers' assistant at the Special School District of St. Louis County while her husband works as a seasonal construction worker with a Granite City general contractor.

In addition to the bake sale, a trust fund has been established at First Granite City National Bank. Donations are tax deductible and may be sent to Pamela Simpson, Catherine DeCoursey Trust Fund, care of Financial Planning and Accounting Center, 1556 Johnson Road, Granite City, Ill., 62040.

Miss Simpson adds that Catie also needs blood donors. Persons participating in a blood drive or program who have not earmarked their donated blood for some specific cause may mark their donation for Catherine DeCoursey, care of St. Louis Children's Hospital. Persons wishing to donate a pint of blood for Catie may do so by contacting a local American Red Cross Chapter.

Further information about the fund drive may be obtained by calling grandparents William and Helen Lore at 931-2171, grandparents Jack and Connie Simpson at 797-0639, grandparents John and Shirley DeCoursey at 877-2950, fund chairman Pamela Simpson at 877-3258 or St. Louis Children's Hospital at 1-314-454-6000.

News notes

Citizens led by Mrs. Helen Hawkins and C. Gregory Thomas are proposing an election on abolishing township collector positions in Madison County. Some collectors have been inactive in recent years, and the late timing of this year's taxing process prevented any township-level collection.

A strike by Chicago teachers is in its fourth day, idling 40,000 employees and 431,000 students.

The Illinois Commerce Commission asked utilities Wednesday to make it easier for the poor who owe gas or electric bills to have their service reconnected.

John Edwards Jr., 61, serving 30 years for an Illinois murder, and Ben J. Gibson, 46, serving a 25-year state murder term, escaped Tuesday morning from the Menard prison near Chester.

The new state Compensation Review Board has set a public hearing for 10 a.m. tomorrow at the St. Clair County Courthouse, Belleville, to consider ideas on salaries for state officials and administrators.

Senator-elect Paul Simon plans to emphasize budget cuts rather than public works projects.

Madison County governmental employees voted Tuesday to reject a proposed two-year contract that had been written by union and county negotiators.

Firewood available for park district residents

A limited supply of firewood is now available for residents of the Granite City Park District, according to David Nolan, director of parks and recreation.

A "car trunk load" may be picked up at the park district maintenance building during regular working hours, 9 a.m. to noon and 12:30 to 5 p.m.

Park district residents should go to the park offices with some form of identification to prove residency prior to loading the wood. A park district ID card, utility bill or driver's license are acceptable.

The cut firewood program will continue based upon availability of dead or unwanted trees in the various parks throughout the city.

Interested residents must provide their own transportation of the firewood. Park district employees will be available to help with loading the wood.

Rites for father of Granite City residents

The Rev. Keady Isgrigg and the Rev. Ken Keathley conducted funeral services at 3 p.m. Saturday, Dec. 1, at the Gish-Bowles and Coder Chapel in Piedmont, Mo., for William Samuel Street, 50, of Patterson, Mo., father of Granite City residents.

Mr. Patterson was born on July 16, 1884, in Bounds, Mo. He died at his home on Nov. 29, 1984.

He first married Jenny Aldrich, who died March 22, 1933, and on April 12, 1936, he married Lottie Wilcox, who survives.

Other survivors include three sons, Vernon Street of Piedmont, Mo., Hal Street of Granite City and Jack Street of Patterson; six daughters, Josephine Pevril of Granite City, Mary How of Washington, Mo., Dorothy Deckard, Octa Montgomery, Eva Asher and Darlene Keathley all of Patterson, Mo.; two brothers, Frank Street and Tommy Street, both of Patterson; three sisters, Wrotha Jarnard, Mattie Allen and Irene Harrison, all of Granite City; 36 grandchildren and 45 great-grandchildren.

Mr. Street served in the U.S. Army during World War I and was in the sawmill and logging business in the Patterson area for 47 years and retired in 1966.

He also was preceded in death by a son, Lewis Street, and a daughter, Bertha Montgomery.

Burial was in Patterson Cemetery.

Allen pledges 'low key' term

By JIM WOODCOCK

Richard Allen, the new Madison County state's attorney, says area newspaper reporters will rarely come across a sizzling news story on a routine visit to his office. Allen said these days are gone with Don Weber, the former state's attorney he narrowly defeated in the Nov. 6 election. Allen said he will administer the office with a "low-keyed" approach, and that will be the major difference between himself and his predecessor.

ALLEN'S COMMENTS came after he was sworn into office Monday morning by former Third Circuit Judge George Moran Jr. Allen, a Democrat, was sworn in with several county officials who were re-elected Nov. 6.

"I'm going to be careful with what I say," Allen said. "Nothing will be sensationalized. I'll be open, but there will be fewer headlines to speak of."

Allen said county residents will probably find his approach to the office refreshing.

Allen's first day at the office did not begin favorably. Upon arriving, he learned that six of the eight secretaries who worked for Weber had left for other employment. And there was virtually no furniture in his office.

ALLEN SAID he would begin interviews for the clerical positions soon. He also said he wants to hire Kristy Ranek, a former secretary who was fired by Weber in a controversy over loyalty to the office.

Allen said he will make hiring decisions early in 1985 on 12 full-time attorneys who worked in the Weber administration. For now, they are part of the Allen administration.

"There will be no drastic changes. The one thing I want to do is observe people for a while," Allen said. "Some of these people have family, kids, and it's Christmas time. I see no reason why someone should abruptly be let go."

ONE PART-TIME attorney on Weber's staff who Allen wants to retain is Robert Griffith, a former Republican state's attorney.

Allen said even though Griffith was "sort of the leader of the parade for Don Weber (in the recent campaign), I'm going to take advantage of whatever he can offer to the office."

Allen said he will also retain the services of Robert Trone, a former staff member for Weber. Allen spoke highly of Trone's prosecuting abilities and said he will concentrate on the Barbara Gusewelle Boyle murder case.

ALLEN ALSO announced the hiring of Dan O'Neill, who will assume the position of county board counsel on a full-time basis. The former county board counsel, Marshall "Zeke" Smith, handled the duties on a part-time basis for Weber.

O'Neill has worked for the secretary of state's office as a special security adviser for the past four years. He formerly practiced law in Alton.

Allen told reporters that either Keith or Susan Jensen will be hired to prosecute felonies, but not both of them.

SUSAN JENSEN is currently working in the county public defender's office. Meanwhile, Keith Jensen is prosecuting felonies for St. Clair County State's Attorney John Baricovic.

Allen said there would be an obvious conflict of interest if Keith Jensen was a prosecutor while his wife was a public defender.

Both Jensens left Weber's office following a dispute in a grand jury investigation into county assessment practices.

"I've talked with Susan and I've had someone talk with Keith," Allen said. "I'll know something in the next few days. It seems to me they'd maximize their income if he stayed there (St. Clair County), but it all depends on their desires."

OTHER HIRINGS Allen announced were:

- Ted Diaz, an Alton attorney, as a part-time assistant who will handle misdemeanors and traffic cases;

- Robert Hennessey, a Granite City attorney, as a part-time assistant who will handle misdemeanors;

- Larry Keshner, a Godfrey attorney, as a part-time assistant for felony cases.

Allen said O'Neill will also assist on civil cases when he is not working as the county board counsel.

ALLEN SAID he will make a decision soon on who to hire as an assistant state's attorney for the Collinsville and Highland areas.

Attorney Chuck Evers handled the Collinsville cases for Weber.

Allen said he has received numerous applications for felony prosecutor positions. He plans to study them before further hirings.

Boys report bizarre incident in cemetery

Two 10-year-old Granite City boys were subjected to a bizarre experience when accosted by a youth while the pair was walking across St. John's Cemetery, 2901 Nameoki Road, at 4:40 p.m. Tuesday.

The boys told police the assailant pulled out a small knife and forced them to take off their coats and shirts. He then made them knock over a tombstone and eat some dirt from the grave site, they told the officers.

One of the boys said the youth put the knife to his throat and threatened to cut him. The second boy reported having the knife pointed at his chest.

They described the assailant as about 14 years old, 5 feet, 9 inches tall, with straight brown hair, collar length. He was wearing a light blue jacket, a blue silk shirt and blue pants.

Independent educational evaluators to be listed

Individuals who wish to be included on a list of independent educational evaluators of handicapped students have until Dec. 21 to apply to the State Board of Education.

A recently enacted state law requires the State Board to compile the list, which will be provided to school districts and be made available for parents of handicapped students in January.

Applications are available at Educational Service Region offices, including Edwardsville, and must be received at the State Board of Education office in Springfield by Dec. 21.

Districts must inform parents that they have the right to request an independent educational evaluation if they disagree with the school district's evaluation of their child. Districts also must provide parents a list of independent educational evaluators, according to the new law.

The list will include potential independent educational evaluators who have completed applications. It should not be considered a list of those endorsed by the State Board or a list of all the evaluators who may be considered by parents, a spokesman said.

Further information may be obtained by contacting the Madison County educational service region superintendent or the Illinois State Board of Education, Department of Specialized Educational Service, at 217-782-6601.

SIUE hosts tax practitioners seminar

Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville will host a two-day seminar for tax practitioners on Monday and Tuesday, Dec. 10 and 11. It was announced today from the office of Earl Lazerson, president. A seminar such as this would be an important addition to, and very much in keeping with the university's continuing efforts to bring an outstanding program of continuing education to area residents, Lazerson said.

Somewhat unique in its format, the seminar will feature split sessions to bring subject matter of value and interest to practitioners at all levels of experience and expertise. The split sessions will provide an opportunity for new, or relatively inexperienced tax practitioners as well as C.P.A.s, attorneys and others with broader knowledge and experience to expand upon their knowledge base. This is a particularly important consideration this year due to the far-reaching changes in income tax law brought about by the Tax Reform Act of 1984.

PLANNING committee for the seminar consists of Edward Small, C.P.A.; Dr. Robert Carver, S.I.U.E.; Will Tribes, President of A.I.M.S., Inc. and Nancy Wilson of the Edwardsville Office of H. & R. Block. While all instructors for the seminar have not yet confirmed their participation, the committee indicates that the staff will be made up of C.P.A.s, attorneys, enrolled agents and other well-qualified persons who are, themselves, active and qualified practitioners. In addition to the daily seminar sessions, an evening session is planned for a demonstration of the Prentice-Hall electronic data retrieval and tax research program.

The fee for advance registration for the seminar is $100.00 ($125.00 at the door) for the two-day seminar and will include all seminar materials. Registration is scheduled for 8 a.m. on Monday, Dec. 10, and the first classroom session will begin promptly at 9 a.m.

Car dealer continues fight against Sunday sales ban

Bill Woodmore, owner of Woodmore Oldsmobile, 19th Street and Madison Avenue, says his fight to repeal an Illinois state law prohibiting the sale of cars on Sundays has slowed down, but hasn't stopped. The new law became effective Nov. 23.

"I'm having some attorneys review the situation in another direction," Woodmore told the Press-Record this week. "Some Chicago attorneys may be looking at it, too, in another direction. We're still trying to influence the legislature to repeal the law."

An earlier appeal challenging the state law failed recently.

Woodmore, who was open on Sundays during the past few years that he has operated his 25-year-old business, says "it's hard to say" whether the Sunday sales ban has affected sales at his business. "Mondays and Saturdays are bigger. But a lot of people don't have time (to shop for cars) when they've got three or four hours to shop on Saturdays," he contends.

Woodmore also argues that automobile dealers have been singled out by the law. "It's ridiculous. If you want to close up and give everybody a day of rest across the state, that's fine. But other retailers are open."

But other car dealership owners in Granite City are supporting the Sunday sales ban. John Novotny, owner of John Novotny Chevrolet at Niedringhaus and Madison avenues, said his business has never been open on Sundays.

"I think it's a good thing, personally. We've never been open on Sunday in the 27 years we've been in business. People always find some way to come in during the work week."

Arrest youths in beating of boys

Jeffrey A. Beasley, 17, and David K. Barber, 17, both of 3812 Kirkpatrick Homes, were arrested at 3:25 p.m. Monday in connection with a Nov. 7 incident in which two boys were beaten in the vicinity of St. Elizabeth Catholic Church, Johnson and Pontoon roads.

Both Beasley and Barber were booked on two warrants each, all alleging battery. Each youth also was charged in a third warrant, alleging misdemeanor theft.

Beasley also was charged with resisting arrest.

The victims, 14 and 15 years old, were walking home near Pontoon Road and Franklin Avenue from a Nov. 7 Junior Achievement meeting when three youths in a car began yelling obscenities, it was alleged.

Beasley and Barber allegedly got out of the vehicle, chased the boys and forced them to the rear of the church, where a wallet and cash reportedly were taken.

At the time officers went to serve the warrants, Beasley allegedly ran out of the front door of the apartment and a foot chase resulted when he refused to halt.

He was caught in the front yard of a neighboring apartment and a struggle ensued with both the officer and Beasley falling to the ground. The youth was subsequently charged with resisting arrest.

"I think Sunday is a day of rest, and people should be with their families," Novotny continued. "We wouldn't open on Sunday even if every other car dealership in town did."

Harold J. "Mal" Matson, owner of Granite Chrysler-Plymouth, 19th Street and Grand Avenue, commented, "We never were open on Sundays and I hope we never have to be open on Sundays."

As to the law banning automobile sales on Sundays, Matson says, "I think everybody, even in industry, was surprised that they'd make such a unique rule banning automobile sales in Illinois. Banning one thing could lead to banning something else."

Matson adds that he prefers to leave Sundays to his employees to use as their free time. But Matson admits that someday his business may be open on Sundays, should he "run into an unusual situation."

Jerry Koetting, owner of Koetting Ford at 1837 Madison Ave., says he is "absolutely delighted with the new law. I am in complete support of it."

Koetting says his business has never been open on Sundays, but there is the remote possibility that Sunday sales could be conducted at the dealership.

"If the law changes to permit car dealers to open on Sunday, I think we might be forced to open to be competitive," he said.

BURGLAR TAKES COLOR TV

Alma Stanley of 703 Webster St., Madison, told police last week that someone broke into her home, taking a 19-inch color television. Entry was gained by kicking in the front door of her home.

AM-FM RADIO TAKEN

Carl Borney of 908 Franklin Ave., Madison, told police last week that someone broke into his home and took an AM-FM radio. Entry was gained through an unlocked window in the kitchen, on the west side of his home.

Cougars Lose 70-47

Flyers steal home opener from SIUE cagers

By ALAN L. GERSTENECKER
Sports Editor
of the Press-Record

EDWARDSVILLE — The weather outside may have been frightful when the Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville men's basketball team made its home debut last night, but maybe it was only fitting considering the Cougars' opponent, Lewis University of Romeoville.

On this night, the night that the Cougars and area sports fans have been anxiously waiting for, had finally arrived. The Vadalabene Center was formally dedicated and with it came the return of Cougar basketball.

Bigger, better and in their own gymnasium.

It was a time of celebration.

AND SOMETHING. It really didn't matter that the Lewis University "Big Red" Flyers shot down the Cougars 70-47. After a year of absence, basketball at SIUE has at long last returned.

But Lewis University couldn't have cared less about sentiment. Rated a strong 14th in the nation in Division II, the Flyers played like they were rated much higher as they shot a whopping 76 percent from the field to tame the Cougars. SIUE, meanwhile, shot 55 percent.

Paced by 6-foot 6-inch sophomore guard Joe Niegro who finished with a career high 32 points, the Flyers were nearly flawless in their systematic dissection of the Cougars. Niegro, the eldest of a pair of twins, was virtually the Flyers' entire offense in the first half.

"HE'S GOT the potential to shoot that well all the time," said Flyer Coach Chuck Schwarz. "He had a good game, but, too, he missed a few easy ones."

On the other side of the court, the Cougars' leading scorers were Billy Papa, the Madison standout three seasons ago, Papa, who played for first-year Cougar coach Larry Graham at Madison and later transferred at Mineral Area Junior College, led all SIUE scorers with 10 points.

"I think maybe we had some butterflies at first, but that really wasn't the reason we lost," Papa said. "We didn't execute and we also didn't get back on defense like we should have. We gave them too many opportunities to score."

GRAHAM, the former Madison High School coach now SIUE's first-year coach, was similarly hard on the Cougars.

"This was a hard game for us to lose because now they'll go in there and drop their heads," Graham said.

"We played at home tonight, and that should've been an advantage, but I really don't know if it was. I'm just glad it's finally over."

Larry Graham
SIUE basketball coach said, "I thought we played pretty good our first four games, but it was a little different tonight. It may have even been a little stage fright," Graham said.

Regardless of the win or loss columns, what was important, Graham said, was that the Cougars have returned home and that they have finally gotten their first home game out of the way.

"WE PLAYED at home tonight, and that should've been an advantage, but I really don't know if it was. I'm just glad it's finally over," Graham said.

"We're not ready to throw in the towel. This is a good ball club we played here tonight. We've just gotta go on. It's all part of building a successful program," Graham said.

When it comes to building a program Coach Schwarz sympathized with Graham. It something he's all too familiar with.

"We went through the say thing just seven years ago," Schwarz explained. "Our program is only seven years old. It takes some time to build a successful program."

"SOME THINK it takes three or four years, but as far as I'm concerned, you really need five. You need the success and then the turnover of players."

Despite the lopsided, 29-point victory for his Flyers, Schwarz was complimentary of Graham and the Cougar basketball team.

"It's gonna take awhile for them to put together a winner, especially with the type of schedule they're playing," Schwarz said. "But I'll tell you, they're obviously well-coached, played hard and very intelligently. That's a sign of a good ball team."

THE LOSS dropped the Cougars to 1-3 on the season while improving the Flyers' record to 3-0, their best start ever.

The Cougars will have a two-day rest before they host Drury College this Saturday at 7:30 p.m. in the Vadalabene Center. The game will follow the Cougar women's game which begins at 5:15 p.m. The Lady Cougars will host the National College of Education.

COUGAR NOTES: Collinsville's Michael "Magic" Hunter played 20 minutes and contributed three points to the Cougars' cause. Madison's Michael Young saw limited action, playing a minute. Marc Parker, the Kahoks' standout two seasons ago, who played for Graham at Granite City Center last year, is expected to be sidelined for another 10 days. He's still recovering from a shoulder injury.

In Vadalabene Center Briggs, Daech officiate first game

By ALAN L. GERSTENECKER
Sports Editor
of the Press-Record

EDWARDSVILLE — When Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville announced the cancellation of its 1983-84 men's basketball season in 1982 and its eventual resumption this season, SIUE officials announced that they were seeking a local coach who knew local athletes.

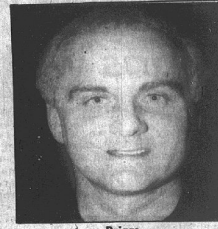

In few words, SIUE made a commitment to southwestern Illinois.

Shortly thereafter James R. Buck, acting athletic director, announced the hiring of Madison High School Coach Larry Graham to head the "new" Cougar program.

Keeping with that local philosophy, Graham signed Collinsville's Michael Hunter and Marc Parker and Madison's Bill Papa and Michael Young.

Well, as it turned out Wednesday night — the night of the Cougars' long awaited return to Edwardsville — it was truly a local affair.

The referees of the contest were no other than Harry Briggs of Granite

Briggs

City and Otto Daech of Collinsville. Briggs, 37, is principal at Nid-ringham Elementary School and a long time high school official for both basketball and football.

Daech, 38, is a State Farm Insurance agent in Collinsville and formerly soccer coach in Collinsville. Daech, incidentally, was the

Daech

Kahoks' first-ever soccer coach. "We've done a few games together before," Briggs said during the halftime intermission. "But Otto and I have known each other for several years."

Both men have been refereeing basketball for several years.

Now 4-1 Women cagers defeat St. Louis

By AL BARNES
for the Press-Record

EDWARDSVILLE — The women's basketball team at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville was awesome last night as it helped in the school's grand opening ceremonies of the brand new Sam Vadalabene Gym by romping rough-shot over St. Louis University, 57-38.

The victory ran the women Cougar cagers' record to 4-1 and dropped the Bills to 3-2.

Barbie Drew, Carbondale's contribution to the Cougars' cage program, started slowly but put together a fantastic second half by racking up 16 points of her game for, both teams, 18 points.

She had entered the game leading all scorers for Coach Wendy Hedberg's SIUE cagers with a 13.7 points per game.

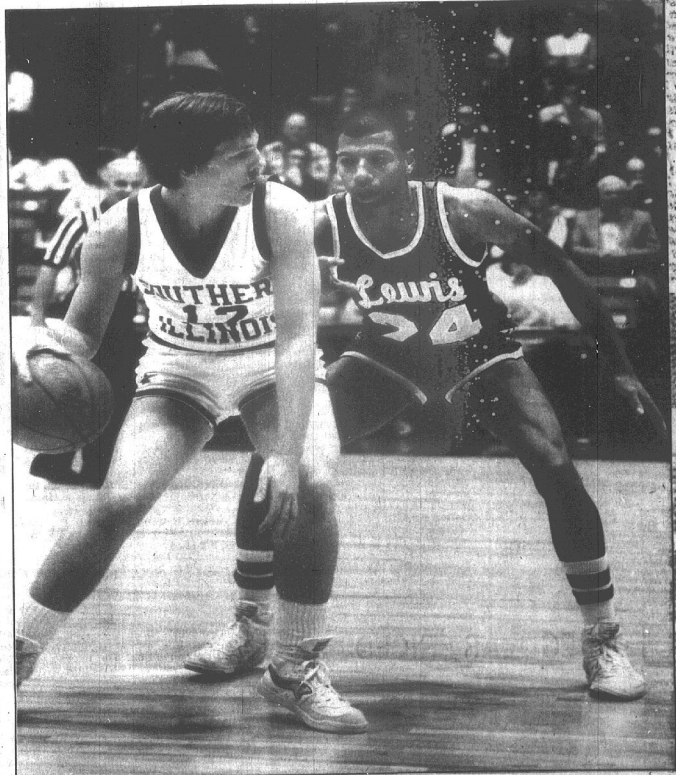

It was a fairly close first half and SIUE left the floor at the intermission in front, 22-16.

But, then Drew a bead on the basket and seemed unable to miss. But her offensive efforts wasn't the only story. She was second for the Cougars in pulling down rebounds with eight. Alana Collins was tops in the number of carries she racked up with 10.

Next to Drew in the scoring column for the Cougars was their tall center, Cheryl McCree, who oddly enough, hails from Carverville, close by Carbondale.

MOVING IN. Southern Illinois University of Edwardsville's Bill Papa dribbles toward the Cougar goal during first half basketball action Wednesday night in the Vadalabene Center at SIUE. Papa, from Madison, was the Cougars' leading scorer in the game with 10 points. Following a pre-game ceremony which officially dedicated the building, the Cougars dropped their first-ever game in the building to Lewis University 70-47. Defending on the play is Lewis' Cliff Evans.

Basketball Action Warriors begin SWC action; meet Maroons this Saturday

By ALAN L. GERSTENECKER
Sports Editor
of the Press-Record

GRANITE CITY — It's been almost 10 years since a Warrior basketball team has competed in the Southwestern Conference, but that will change this weekend.

Saturday night, the Warriors will host Belleville West, the SWC's third-place finisher last year behind East St. Louis Senior and Alton which tied for top honors.

The Mighty Maroons were 4-4 in the league last year and finished the season with an overall 11-15 mark. Coming into Saturday's game with the Warriors, the Maroons are 1-0 after posting a 16-point victory over Centralia on Dec. 1. The Warriors were 10-16 last year and after last Friday's loss to Madison are an even 2-2 this season.

THE WARRIORS have an advantage going into the game, it's their varsity experience. In all, the Warriors have four athletes — Jeff and Joe Gray, Scott Cant and Kurt Hyla returning from last year's squad with extensive varsity experience. Jerry Paul and Don Stevanus, the Warriors' big men this season who tower at 6-foot 9-inches, are seeing a lot of varsity action this season.

But aside from the experience, Deterding sees another plus for the Warriors Saturday, one that involves both the Maroons' and the Warriors' schedules.

"They've got East St. Louis Senior Friday in East St. Louis and then on Saturday," Deterding said of Belleville West. "That's two conference games in two days. And," said the Warrior coach, "both us and East St. Louis feature two different styles of basketball. It'll be tough for them (Belleville) to adequately prepare for both of us."

ASSESSING the Maroons, Deterding said the biggest adjustment the Warriors will have to make for Saturday's game will be patience. Simply put, they'll need more of it.

"West plays a pretty good man-to-man defense — as well as anybody in the area. To beat that we've got to learn to be more patient on offense, look for the best pass and make them count," the Warrior coach said.

Defensively, the Warriors will change very little as they prepare for the Maroons. They will utilize Deterding's patented 2-3 defense and, when the situation permits, the 1-3-1 half-court trap.

THE MAROONS will also feature a senior-laden squad, but with considerably less varsity experience. Mark Lanson, the Maroons' 5-foot 10-inch senior guard, and Jeff Walls, a 6-foot 4-inch senior center, return with the most playing experience from last year's squad.

Rounding out this year's West starting five are 6-foot 1-inch senior forward Kevin Prindable, 6-foot 2-inch senior forward Jon Barnett and 6-foot senior guard Doug Sperry.

Although those were the starters in last week's opener, Maroon coach Roger Mueller said Kurt Marchand and Scott Lawrence will see considerable action. Both are seniors.

MARCHAND is a transfer student from Althoff where he was one of the Crusaders' leading scorers last season. Lawrence saw limited action with Belleville West last season.

"We'll start those five, but we really don't have a sixth or seventh man," Mueller said Wednesday. "We substitute heavily and it's hard to say who our first substitution will be."

Turning his comments toward Granite City, Mueller said he expects a tough game Saturday night. "They played us pretty tough last year here at our place. Knowing who they've got coming back, it should be a real dogfight," Mueller said. "Granite City should be pretty tough. They're always tough defensively, they're well-coached and again this year they've got some outstanding shooters. We're looking for a really good game."

ALTHOUGH both teams have yet to play a SWC game, results and statistics of each team's games are quite revealing.

The Warriors' offense is currently fifth among SWC teams with 56 points a game while the Maroons scored 55 in their only game thus far. Alton is tops offensively among SWC teams with 66 points a game. Behind Alton is East St. Louis, Collinsville and then Belleville East sixth.

Defensively, the Warriors are rated higher, allowing an average of 46 points a game. That is second in the SWC behind none other than Belleville West which allowed just 39 points to Centralia. Belleville East is third defensively followed by East St. Louis, Collinsville and Alton.

THOSE figures reveal that Alton has the best defense in the conference while simultaneously fielding the worst defense. But even as poor as that seems, it translates into parity within the conference.

Thus far, the Warriors, Belleville West, Collinsville, East St. Louis and even Alton appear to be virtually even within the SWC. What strengths one SWC squad has on defense it proportionally lacks on offense, and vice versa. Except for Belleville East. The Lancers are on the bottom standing thus far — last in offense and third in defense.

ONE REASON for the Warriors' relative good showing thus far, statistically, is as good a defensive coach in the area as you'll find. His teams historically rank among the Metro-East's best when it comes to guarding the basket.

Offensively, the Warriors may

Meet Madison Saturday Giant killers again: Red Devils cut down Tigers, 55-53

By JAMES BLASINGAME
of the Press-Record

VENICE "Take notice, you large school basketball powers. The short and sassy Venice Red Devils are 3-4 and won't back down from anybody. Without a player over 6-foot-2 inches, the Red Devils have relied on quickness, defensive pressure and rebound positioning to win basketball games this season, and so far, it's worked."

In their home opener, Venice, with an enrollment of 171, squeaked past mighty Sumner High School (of the St. Louis Public High League) 57-54. Sumner's enrollment of 1,283 is eight times that of Venice's.

TUESDAY night the Red Devils stoned another basketball giant when they knocked off the East St. Louis Tigers 55-53.

Played before a capacity crowd in the Venice gymnasium, the game was a thriller. With under a minute left, Jesse Hall, the Red Devils' sophomore sky-walker, made a steal at half court and soared in for a gym-shakin', earth-quakin', slam dunk that sent the crowd into a frenzy and put Venice in front 54-53.

After the basket, Lincoln failed to inbound the ball in the allotted five seconds and turned it over to the Devils. Then it was lights out for the Tigers — and for the scoreboard.

APPARENTLY, an over-exuberant Venice fan kicked the scoreboard's cord loose from the socket in the stands. The scoreboard lights went out temporarily, and when the lights came back on, the clock was reset at 32 seconds.

The Devils put the ball in play and ran it ticks off the clock before Lincoln regained control. But Hall made another steal and was fouled with five seconds remaining. He canned a free throw to clinch the victory for Venice.

The dunk that put Venice ahead was Hall's second of the contest, the first coming with 4:58 remaining in the game and the Devils trailing 48-43.

"WHEN WE made a couple steals and slammed the ball, he lifted the team," said Venice coach Clinton Harris. "He played tonight the way he's supposed to play."

Hall and the Red Devils broke out to an early 12-4 lead against the taller Lincoln squad, but the Tigers took control of the backboards and led 32-26 at the half.

"At half-time we made a couple of adjustments," said Harris. "We moved Ed (Ware) from wing to point guard, (Charles) Milton from center back to baseline, and Victor (Jackson) from wing to the middle." The baseline is where Milton normally plays in the Red Devil offense, and according to Harris, is a "better player" there.

"THE FIRST half we weren't using our heads," Harris said. "They (Lincoln) were playing a zone on us, and Ed (Ware) took a couple long shots. Jesse made a lot of bad passes, and Damon (Harris) made a lot of bad passes too."

"We knew we had to come out and play defense in the second half. We had to have weakside help, and had to have our guard drop down in the middle and help," said Harris. "Our defense won the ball game for us." The Red Devil defense held Lincoln to just eight fourth-quarter points, and for most of the final stanza the Tigers only got one shot each time down the court.

MILTON, Hall and Darren Wise, all of whom stand 6-foot-2, were effective in fronting and blocking out Lincoln's 6-5 Robbie Carter, 6-5 Aaron Olden, and 6-4 Chauncey Hines. Ware, Damon Harris and Jackson provided the weakside help that the Devils needed and collapsed whenever the Tigers did get the ball inside. Although Venice was out rebounded 32-22 for the contest, the Devils played a sound game under the backboard.

"That's the first thing I told them — screen off the boards," said the Venice coach. "We did that real well tonight."

HARRIS was pleased with the win over the Tigers, but he downplayed the victory. "Lincoln is a good club and that's what I like — playing against good competition. It's the only way the boys are gonna learn something."

"I want them (Venice players) to be happy, but not overconfident. We didn't win state tonight. It was just another game," said Harris. "We're just going to take 'em team by team."

Venice's next test will come Saturday night when they will host the Madison Trojans. Tip-off is at 8:15. Tickets for the game will go on sale Friday at Venice High School beginning at 8 a.m. in the school office. Tickets are $2 for adults and $1 for students.

Williams, a junior from Los Angeles, set school and Big Ten records for receptions and yards gained receiving. He gained 1,278 yards, good for a 12.7 average and eight touchdowns. He earned All-Big Ten first team honors from United Press International, and is a leading contender for All-America honors.

REACHIN' MILTON. Venice forward Charles Milton stretches for a rebound against East St. Louis Lincoln's Ricky Griffin in third quarter action on Tuesday night. Milton scored 12 points and played aggressive defense in helping the Red Devils beat Lincoln 55-53.

Now 2-1 McKinley hands Madison first loss

By CHARLIE SKAER
of the Press-Record

ST. LOUIS — The McKinley Gold Bugs maintained their undefeated status Tuesday while handing the Madison Trojans their first loss of the season.

But the 73-62 loss isn't being viewed by Madison coach Rodney Watson as an early warning sign of problems. Instead, Watson thinks the loss was primarily due to the exceptional play of the opposition.

"They (McKinley) have some excellent talent," said Watson. "They've beaten other teams this year by as many as 40 points."

THE TROJANS went into the game wanting to limit the scoring of 6-foot-5 center Roland Gray and 6-foot-4 guard Monroe Douglas, two McKinley powerhouses. The plan didn't succeed, as Gray scored 28 and Douglas added 23.

"They were highly touted," said

Watson. "You're not going to stop them. All you can try to do is hold them down."

Had Madison accomplished that feat, the Trojans would have had a real shot at a win. Besides Gray and Douglas, no other McKinley players reached double figures.

FOR MADISON, Reggie Banks led the team in scoring with 19 points. James Bennett followed with 15 and Anthony Valentine was the final Madison player to reach double figures, scoring 10.

The Trojans were behind throughout the entire game, except for a quick 4-0 lead shortly after the opening quarter. But the slow start for McKinley didn't last, as the team took a 18-14 first quarter lead and upped it to 40-30 at half.

"We missed a few chip shots that hurt," said Watson. "And we missed a few one-and-one free throws. If we would have connected on those, we would have tightened the score."

BUT AS it turned out, McKinley maintained a nine-point margin over Madison at the end of the third quarter and upped it to an 11-point win.

"The effort was there," said Watson. "It's just a matter of execution."

The Trojans better be prepared to execute this weekend. Friday they take on the Belleville East Lancers in an 8 p.m. away game. Saturday the Trojans will travel to Venice to take on the Red Devils in an 8 p.m. showdown. Tickets for Saturday's game go on sale at 7:30 a.m. Friday at the basketball ticket office. Prices are $2 for adults and $1 for youths.

"Friday we're going to put pressure on the ball to try to keep it away from (7-foot) Gary Leonard," said Watson. "We don't even want to talk about Saturday until we get past Friday."

For Basketball Flora's Leib signs with SIUE

EDWARDSVILLE — Greg Leib, a 6' 5" 200-pound senior forward from Flora High School, didn't waste much time in deciding where he wanted to play basketball after graduating next May. Leib has signed a letter of intent to play for Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville for the 1985-86 season, the school has announced.

In signing a letter of intent to play for the Cougars next year, though still having to play his senior year in high school, Leib took advantage of a new rule allowing for an earlier signing period.

LEIB is the first player who has signed in Graham's first full season of recruiting.

Leib already has earned high marks. As a junior last season, he was an All-Conference and All-State Tournament selection. He averaged 15 points and seven rebounds per game, connecting on 53 percent of his shots from the field and 75 percent from the charity stripe. Leib's play helped the Wolves to a 29-3 record and a trip to the "Elite Eight" of the state tournament. The Wolves lost their quarter final game to Providence St. Mel's High School.

NEEDLESS to say, Leib is a welcomed addition. "We're very happy to have signed Greg,"

Graham said. "He is an outstanding student and very hard worker, both on and off the floor. We feel his intensity and all-around abilities will be a big plus in helping rebuild the program. I feel that with his good maneuverability, he will be an asset for us from both under the basket or from the outside."

"Signing in November also says a lot for the program we are trying to establish here at SIUE," Graham said.

Flora Coach Tom Welch speaks highly of Leib. "Greg is one of the hardest workers I have ever coached. I'm sure he spends more time in the gym than any player I have seen in a long time."

Psalm 31:1 "In thee, O Lord, do I put my trust; let me never be ashamed."

God can be trusted. He is no respecter of persons. He is the same to all who call upon his name. He does not change. The same yesterday, today and forever. He can supply our every need. He can renew our strength, lift our burdens, give peace that passes understanding. Trust Him.

Never be ashamed. Never doubt. Cast all your care on Him for He cares for you. It is not necessary to define or explain God. It is necessary to have faith in Him. For to Him that believeth in God, all things are possible.

The Apostle Paul writes, "I am not ashamed of the gospel of Jesus Christ, for I believe it is the power of God unto salvation, to every one that believeth."

Will you put your trust in God?

Council picks Chevrolet squad cars

By SUSAN SIGNAIGO-WEICH of the Press-Record

After six weeks of discussions about police cars, Granite City aldermen decided to go with the original recommendation Tuesday night and accepted the bid from John Novotny Chevrolet.

"Mayor, we've come full circle on this thing," commented Alderman Sam Whitmer, a member of the police committee.

AND SO the council had. At the Oct. 20, council meeting this year, when the first recommendation was made, Whitmer and the committee suggested that the council award the contract to Novotny Chevrolet.

Davis, board agree differences irreconcilable

Irreconcilable differences now are cited as the reason for the Granite City School Board's decision not to renew the contract of Bobby Joe Davis as superintendent of the school district.

A new action was taken by the board Tuesday night. It substitutes a notice for the notice that was approved 4-2 on June 28.

The earlier action ended Davis' role as superintendent as of the following day, June 30, 1984. That notice listed a series of criticisms of Davis; the allegations now have been deleted.

On Aug. 28, the board placed Davis on sabbatical leave for the 1984-85 school year.

The latest notice states, "Pursuant to the vote of a majority of the board Dec. 4, 1984, you are hereby served with notice of the intent of the board not to renew your agreement for employment by the district as superintendent effective July 1, 1985."

"The reason for the decision not to renew your agreement as superintendent is that irreconcilable differences have arisen between you and the board. You are further notified of your right to a closed hearing before the board upon request in writing within 10 days of the receipt of this notice."

The new notice was signed by President Kelly Hogan. The June notice was signed by David Partney, who was board president then.

Davis is to become a teacher for the 1985-86 school year, after which he will be eligible for early retirement at age 55.

He was 53 at the time of the board's June decision. The vote at that time said he could be a teacher or could have no duties, whichever he desired, in 1984-85.

Since he could not have qualified for normal pension benefits unless he attained 55 as a School District Nine employee, it was decided, 6-1, in late August to grant a sabbatical for the current year. This sets the stage for the final year, which all

But council members raised questions about the specifications that had been set up by the committee. Several aldermen and one local car dealer said that the wheel base specification on the cars had been unfair, since not all of the car dealers could meet the requirement.

Aldermen voted to readvertise for bids on the cars and, when the new bids were turned over to the police committee, they again recommended Novotny Chevrolet.

DURING THE first bidding, Novotny was not the lowest local bidder, but the second time, the dealer ship was. The actual low bidder for the cars the second time was Dave Croft Chrysler in Collinsville, whose price was $3,324 less than Novotny's. Novotny's bid for five Chevrolet Impalas is $51,106.

While making his presentation to the council, Alderman Everett "Cherry Picker" Morien, said his committee had been swayed to pick Novotny over the lowest bidder, because Novotny was a local firm.

"There's been a lot of people hollering about buying in town, so we're recommending that we buy in town," he said.

Alderman Sharon Perjak said she wanted to go on record as agreeing with Morien. "This is probably the first time I've ever agreed with him," she said.

"NEVERTHELESS, I think the $3,000 more that we'll be paying to buy the cars locally, is minimal compared to the costs that would be incurred if the city went to Collinsville. I think we should buy locally and I encourage the aldermen on the other side of the table, as they are called, to concur with this recommendation."

Morien added that he thinks buying locally is an effort by the council to help the taxpayers. "If we keep buying out of town, why these places are bound to close up and there'll be a lot of jobs lost in town. We should try to keep jobs, not lose them."

All of the aldermen present at the meeting voted in favor of the awarding of the contract. Absent from the meeting was Alderman Paul Ray Bowler.

GC schools OK enterprise zone

By BILL WINTER of the Press-Record

The Granite City School Board voted 6-1 Tuesday night to participate in an enterprise zone, waiting new employers' assessment increase for four years.

If a sufficiently attractive zone plan can be filed this month, state approval is hoped for in 1985, effective next July, the board was told by Aaron Ridenour, Madison County economic development coordinator.

JOB GROWTH is the goal of the Illinois enterprise zone law, under which the state selects a limited number of new zones each year.

In addition, whatever physical improvements are built will go on the real estate tax rolls starting with the fifth year, it was explained. And workers attracted to new businesses become taxpayers immediately, the board was told.

President Kelly Hogan dissented, on the basis that zone-related assessment abatements lack any guarantee of employment growth.

LOCAL UNEMPLOYMENT is the category under which the Quad-City area zone proposal will be submitted to the Department of Commerce and Community Affairs.

No federal enterprise zone law exists but if one is enacted state-authorized zones could seek federal designation as well, Ridenour said.

He said the unemployment rule is that, to be chosen, a new enterprise zone must have 120 percent of the state's jobless average.

THE TERRITORY of Madison, part of Venice and southern and western Granite City qualifies at 152 percent—about 15 percent of the work force, to the state's 10 percent average, Ridenour added.

Abatement of the first four years' assessment growth is granted to a business development in conformity with its building permit.

If there is a waiver by the municipality of its one percent sales tax, the state waives its five percent sales tax on materials used in the construction, Ridenour related.

ABATEMENT APPLIES to both new facilities and business expansions, questioning by board members brought out.

A four-year approach was developed by the state agency to create added incentive for manufacturers to locate within a community.

Although there is a delay in obtaining potential expansion of the assessment base, the net result was described as a surge in the overall economy and prosperity.

LOCAL CITIES and schools are being asked to sponsor the proposed enterprise zone in conjunction with the county government. Such cooperation and unity is considered a plus factor in competing with other areas for selection, Ridenour reported.

The enterprise boundary includes but is not related to the existing foreign trade zone, based at the Tri-City Regional Port District and at area warehouses.

All of the enterprise zone ordinances and resolutions being considered by city councils and school boards here are identical in wording.

SIUE symphony performs concert

"Symphonis Nobilissima" by Robert Jaeger will set the tone for the program to be played Dec. 8 by the Symphonic Band of Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville under the direction of Marcia LaReau. The concert, one of the Sunday afternoon series at Christ Church Cathedral, St. Louis, will begin at 2 p.m.

An important work by Vincent Persichetti, "Symphony No. 6," will follow. The work has a St. Louis connection, since it was commissioned by Washington University and received its premiere performance here in 1959. Janet Scott, nationally known flutist and now associate professor of music at SIUE, was the soloist when the symphony received its initial hearing. Persichetti, a New York organist, is one of the foremost contemporary American composers, according to LaReau.

PROFESSOR SCOTT will play for his program, performing the piccolo solo for Vivaldi's "Concerto in C."

Director LaReau says the musicians intend "to strain the very roofbeams of the venerable church" with Richard Strauss' "Death and Transfiguration," which they have been rehearsing with "unprecedented elan" for a student group. "Sometimes it's hard to get younger musicians to settle down," she noted; "but the band has certainly concentrated its energies for this work."

The fifth selection will be another piece by Richard Strauss, "Der Zwickelkamp; Polonaise for Flute and Bassoon," which is believed to be unperformed previously. Composed in 1904, it may make its premiere on its centennial as a result of the scholarly diligence of Professor Scott.

THE WORK CAME to light this summer during a research project sponsored by the university, during which Miss Scott was making accessible for performers and scholars the John F. Kiburz collection of the Lovejoy Library, one of the most complete collections of flute and piccolo music dating from the mid-19th century to the 1930s. The project was an act of homage to John F. Kiburz, Jr., a major musician in his own right, a member of an important St. Louis musical family, and an early mentor for Miss Scott.

Kiburz taught the flute in the department of music at SIUE until 1970, and he left the music gathered during his 41-year career and that of his father and grandfather in the trust of the university.

In this performance, the band will be accompanied by string members of the SIUE Symphony Orchestra. The score was prepared by Professor Scott's graduate assistant, Peggy Bumb, who is also the first bassoonist for the St. Louis Youth Symphony Orchestra. Miss Scott and Miss Bumb worked together all summer on the Kiburz project.

ALTHOUGH THE discovery has been characterized as an amusing diversion, it ensures that the full canon of the great Romantic composer's work becomes available for an audience to judge and to enjoy for itself, Miss LaReau said.

The program will reach another climactic moment with "Laude" by the late Howard Hanson, another major American composer who spent most of his career at the Eastman School of Music. According to Miss LaReau, "Laude" is especially suited for the ambience of the Christ Church Cathedral.

The program will conclude with George Gershwin's "Second Prelude," which was originally a jazz ballad for piano but has been scored for full band performance.

"ALL OF THE music has been selected with this beautiful church in mind," Miss LaReau stated. "We are proud to be part of this important series which brings so many superb musicians and groups to the St. Louis audience."

Bertolt Brecht play is presented at SIUE theater

The Edwardsville Arts League Players' fall production, "Mother Courage and Her Children" will be presented at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville's (SIUE) Student Experimental Theater this weekend.

Mother Courage is set in the 17th Century, during the infamous Thirty Years War. As Protestants, Catholics, emperors and kings chase through central Europe, Mother Courage and her three children follow the war with their canteen wagon.

THE PLUCKY Mother Courage barters her way through it all, meeting soldiers, officers, lovers, peasants and henchmen along the way. By the end of the play, she has lost all of her children, only to be left with her ruined wagon and her determination to keep moving.

The Arts League Players' production features a close-knit ensemble, with more than 30 roles being performed by only nine men and four women.

According to John Harvey, director of the Bertolt Brecht drama, the play is a challenge for any theatre troupe. "Brecht wrote more about producing his plays than any dramatist in history," he said. "You must separate Brecht the poet and playwright from Brecht the director, from Brecht the theorist, from Brecht the politician, from Brecht the public bad boy."

"BRECHT WAS AN enormously gifted, complex and complicated artist. It's lucky for us 'mere mortals' that Brecht spawned enough legends and directives so that we could choose a few of his intentions to guide us. The rest of it, others can exploit in their productions."

"We will emphasize the emotional conflicts of the characters, and try to balance the pathos with the great energy and humor of the play. All costume, set, prop and makeup changes will occur in full view of the audience.

"In this way we will show a good story and do it in Brechtian style."

THE PRODUCTION will be performed at 8:15 p.m. on Friday, Dec. 7, and Saturday, Dec. 8, and at 3 p.m. on Sunday, Dec. 9.

The SIUE Experimental Theater is located behind the Sam Vadalabene Center on campus.

Tickets are available in Edwardsville at The Book Shelf and at The Green Earth Grocery. Admission is $5 in advance or $3.50 at the door. The production is funded in part through a grant from the Illinois Arts Council.

Dedicate Bi-State bus garage Friday

The Bi-State Transit division of the Bi-State Development Agency will mark the official opening of its Illinois Station Garage with a grand opening ceremony at 11 a.m. Friday, Dec. 7, on the site of the new facility, 801 N. 47th St., East St. Louis. Local state and federal officials will participate in the dedication ceremonies.

The new facility replaces an old East St. Louis garage and a Belleville garage that were inadequate to provide maintenance and repair for the 150 buses dispatched from that site. The Illinois Station Garage is the third facility to be completed under Bi-State's garage replacement program.

Situated on 15 acres at 47th and St. Clair Avenue in East St. Louis, the new facility contains 287,235 square feet of work space. It is designed to provide indoor bus parking, daily bus servicing, areas for bus maintenance and inspection, and an operations center.

"Completion of the Illinois Station Garage fulfills consolidation and modernization of transit vehicle maintenance and storage in the Metro East area," Thomas W. Sturgess, director of communications, said.

DRIVER HURT SLIGHTLY IN MISHAP ON STATE

Laura L. Lannom, 24, of 2267 Grand Ave., sustained a minor injury this week when her auto, southbound in the 2900 block of State Street, rounded the curve and veered to the right, striking a parked pickup truck.

The parked vehicle, belonging to James J. McQuade, 2900 State St., was pushed forward into a guard rail and chainlink fence at Niedringhaus Elementary School, Miss Lannom was charged with failure to reduce speed to avoid an accident.

VANDAL CUTS TIRES ON VENICE VEHICLES

Reports of tire damage on four vehicles were received this week by Venice police, who are continuing to investigate the vandalism.

Linda Newsome, 1013 Logan Ave., Venice, reported finding all four tires flat and probably cut on a 1980 Thunderbird, and Angela Shepard, 1300 Klein St., Venice, said one tire was cut on her vehicle.

Corporations challenged to sponsor employees as special YMCA members

A challenge to corporations to help keep their employees physically fit for a small investment was issued Tuesday by Jerry Swalling, executive director of the Tri-City Area YMCA.

Swalling announced the "Santa Arrives Early at the YMCA" program, which lowers YMCA full membership price for employees backed by their companies. Under the plan, which is being offered only until Dec. 25, corporations may pay $100 for each participating employee, the employee pays $100 and the YMCA will waive the remainder of the membership fee, more than $90.

The full membership includes Nautilus privileges when the new Nautilus equipment arrives. Delivery is scheduled in 90 days. Twelve pieces of Nautilus equipment have been ordered.

In addition, the special "Santa Arrives Early" memberships include full use of the current universal exercise equipment, gymnasium, racquetball courts, indoor swimming pool and other YMCA facilities, as well as member rates to all classes and programs.

Thanks to a new Apple computer system donated this week to the YMCA by Madison County Federal Savings and Loan, YMCA members may obtain a computerized health risk appraisal at no cost. A special program is utilized and information on work, health habits, personal use of time and other information is input to determine the health risk of each person tested.

"Employees willing to sponsor employees at $100 each will certainly aid the employees' health and well-being. At the YMCA, the employees' health risk will be tested and programs suggested to strengthen their hearts and bodies. With proper exercise and a fully-supervised Nautilus program, the physical health of each employee should be improved, thus reducing lost work time and reducing inurance premiums," Swalling said. He also noted that proper exercise leaves employees more relaxed and reduces tensions in the office or plant.

"We can only offer this special program through Dec. 25, so I hope corporations will not delay in offering this special Christmas present to their employees, a full year of exercise and better health," Swalling said.

Persons or corporations interested in more information on the program may contact the YMCA at 876-7200.

Realtors praise Sen. Vadalabene

A special award to Senator Sam M. Vadalabene from the Granite City Board of Realtors recognizes "outstanding service to the business of providing homes for citizens and to the general prosperity of the community."

The plaque presented by Ralph Abrams, past president, and John Blasingame, president, says it was given in appreciation for your action in support of the real estate industry and unselfish contributions to our community.

Sen. Vadalabene responded, "One of the areas of our economy which has faced the most severe challenges in our recovery has been the real estate business, particularly because of continuing high interest rates. "Whatever can be done on the state level to stimulate the housing market and provide better homes for our taxpaying citizens demands serious attention."

"This recognition will inspire me to work even harder to strengthen and solidify the pace of prosperity in this region."

Southern Ill. Methodists to fight hunger

People of Southern Illinois who want to help relieve the hunger crisis in Ethiopia and other African countries may send contributions to any local United Methodist Church, designated "African Hunger Appeal," or send a donation directly to the United Methodist Conference Offices of the denomination at 1919 Broadway, Mt. Vernon, Ill. 62684 (telephone 242-4070).

One hundred percent of each gift goes to the hunger relief program in Africa. Cost of administration and promotion is handled by the denomination from other sources.

"All of us are touched by this unprecedented crisis," Bishop Woodie White of Springfield said. "I hope everyone — United Methodist or not, Christian or not — will contribute to meet this desperate need. Hunger knows no denominational or faith boundaries. This need overwhelms the combined efforts of all church, government and independent groups."

Bishop White attended the semi-annual meeting of the United Methodist Council of Bishops, Nov. 12-16, when the council issued an appeal to remedy hunger in Africa with a minimum goal of $2.5 million.

Construction of prison at Galesburg will begin

Construction of the Galesburg Correctional Center will begin early next year and reach completion in the fall of 1985. Funding for the $38.5 million appropriation was approved last week, when the General Assembly increased the capital development bond authorization level.

The 750-bed, medium-security prison will create an estimated 200 construction jobs and, when the facility is operational, more than 400 permanent jobs with an annual payroll of about $10 million. Contracts for the prison's plumbing, heating, ventilating and electrical work will be bid Dec. 14 and the project's general contract will be bid Dec. 31.

The prison will occupy 62 acres of a 76.6-acre site southwest of the city. The site was provided to the state through the Galesburg Area Chamber of Commerce Development Corporation.

Group warns against toys that are hazardous to eyes

With Christmas approaching, stores are stocked with a fascinating collection of toys for children of all ages.

The Illinois Optometric Association (IOA) wants persons to remember eye safety when making their selections.

According to IOA, an estimated 71,000 children under the age of 15 are treated in the nation's emergency rooms each year for product-related eye injuries. Two-thirds of such injuries occur during play or sports—three-fourths happen when children are unsupervised.

Although baseballs, pencils, metal pieces and glass fragments are listed as leading culprits, often lost in the statistical shuffle are bright, shiny—and hazardous—Christmas presents. Many popular Christmas gifts can be potentially dangerous to the eyes of a child.

The IOA has set up a few guidelines to educate adults about what types of toys may be hazardous to children. Here are some of them:

—In general, any toy involving a projectile, including space robots, rocket ships, dart games or other toys which launch objects into the air—and perhaps into an eye.

—Toys with sharp edges or points and toys that have small removable parts which might be swallowed.

—BB guns and similar gas, air or spring-operated guns.

—Bows and arrows, darts and slingshots.

—Tools, such as hammers, saws and drills.

According to Dr. Martin J. Sikorski, an optometrist and spokesman for the IOA, parents also should consider their child's abilities when selecting toys. "Projectiles can be especially dangerous because smaller children tend to just stand there and watch them, rather than reacting to get out of the way," he said.

"A younger child's visual and motor skills are simply not as well developed as an adult's. An excited child can begin waving a toy about wildly, lose control and that's when a sharp edge or sharp arm can cause harm."

Commenting on the popular video games, Dr. Sikorski said these games, in general, are good when not over-used, because they help children develop hand-eye coordination, rhythm and timing skills.

He cautioned, however, that handheld "small-screen" games can be harmful because they are extremely demanding on the eye. He cited research which indicates that near-sightedness in adults is linked to the amount of "close work" they perform as children.

The IOA encourages purchase of developmental toys, and has assembled a list of toys which help develop general motor skills, special motor skills, eye movement skills and visual judgements as well as visualization and visual memory skills for toddlers, pre-schoolers and children 6 years and older.

The free list may be obtained by sending a stamped, self-addressed envelope to: Illinois Optometric Association, 1301 West 22nd St., Suite 308, Oak Brook, Ill., 60521.

Quadrant Church Women United will continue all its current programs to assist people in this area and with national projects, according to it end of the year report submitted by various chairmen in the organization.

The next affair will be a pre-Christmas gathering on Friday, Dec. 7, at Nameoki Presbyterian Church, 1700 Pontoon Road, to begin at noon. Each one attending is to bring a white elephant gift and all proceeds will be donated to the Fifth Decade Fund, Mrs. Ola J. Jones, president, added.

On Jan. 8 the annual assembly will be hosted at Mount Nebo Baptist Church, 800 Jefferson St., Madison. Registration will start at 9:30 a.m. and a soup luncheon will be served at noon.

Mrs. Catherine Ponce, chairman of the layette program noted the group still gives 60 layettes a year to needy mothers in the Quad-City area. The most needed items to prepare the layette include receiving blankets, sleepers, gowns, booties or socks, bibs, diapers, sweater sets, plastic pants, and undershirts.

"Some youth groups bring gifts to the altar at Christmas and we can always use your help," Mrs. Ponce said.

"In October, Project Help served

482 persons and supplemented these October distributions with the last of the produce from the Community Garden. Again this year, the pastor provided turkeys in the December food distribution. We also hope to provide other extras for the holiday season, Mrs. Nona Corzilius, Project Help representative explained.

Church Women United has been asked to prepare the December food boxes on Tuesday, Dec. 11, at 10 a.m. If any member of a church would like to help that day at the Co-Ordinated Youth building, they are advised to call Mrs. Corzilius at 876-8414 or 877-4470. The following two days will be for distribution she said.

KIM WICKES

Kim Wickes to sing at Second Baptist

Kim Wickes, a native of Korea who was blinded at the age of three when the North Koreans invaded her village in 1950 and bomb exploded near her, will be in concert at the Second Baptist Church Sunday, Dec. 9, at 7:30 p.m.

Immediately following the performance there will be a reception for the soloist according to the Rev. Henry Hall Jr., minister of Music and Youth, at the church.

Born in 1947 the young woman's life was nearly snuffed out when in frustration over his inability to feed his child, Kim's Buddhist father threw the little blind girl and her younger sister into the river. Kim's mother's screams caused her father to change his mind. He rescued Kim from the waters but her sister already drowned.

When the mother failed to return home from a search for food, her father took her to the Harry Hill Orphanage for the blind at Taegu. There, she was nurtured back to health and got her first introduction to singing.

At age 10 Kim was encouraged to come to the United States and she was placed by the Harry Hill Adoption Agency with a Christian family, Mr. and Mrs. George Wickes and their four children of Dayton, Ind.

She graduated from Wheaton Academy, a Christian high school then operated by Wheaton College, Wheaton, Ill., and attended the college and then went on to earn her bachelor's and master's degrees in music from the School of Music at Indiana University.

The public is invited to attend this special musical, Rev. Hall said.

Special song fest at local church

A special song fest will be performed at the Bethel Bible Fellowship, 25th and August streets, formerly Bethel Temple Pentecostal Center, according to the host minister, the Rev. Bob Burkett.

The public is invited to attend the services and social event, the pastor added.

They will be in charge of a special service on Sunday, Dec. 6, at 7 p.m. featuring a variety of holiday songs and hymns.

On Dec. 15, at 7 p.m. the young people will attend a yuletide party in the church fellowship hall which they decorated along with trimming of a Christmas tree at their Dec. 3 meeting.

The teachers and officers have plans for a yule dinner at Rascals Restaurant in Collinsville on Dec. 16 following the church service. Other holiday affairs include the Sunday School program on Dec. 20 to begin at 7 p.m. with each class to perform a specialty relating to the season.

The Rev. Henry Crippen will deliver the sermon at the 11 a.m. worship service on Dec. 23 and at 6 p.m. that night a program entitled, "Merry Christmas With Love" will be presented by the church choir.

June Cochran will be in concert on Dec. 30 at 6 p.m., according to the minister.

On Nov. 26 a group of 60 church members attended a skating party at Skopkotte's Skating Rink and will return there on Dec. 17 at 7 p.m. for another session.

Advent services at St. John UCC

The last three Sundays in Advent have been planned at St. John United Church of Christ, 2801 Nameoki Road, according to Marion Willard, chairman of the Music and Worship Committee.

On each the three Sundays, families will participate in the lighting of the holy Advent candles in the chancel of the church. Special music will be performed by the choir of the church on each of the three Sundays.

On Dec. 9, the second Sunday in Advent, the Chancel Choir, under the direction of Alan R. Miller, will perform "Advent Song" by David H. Williams.

On Dec. 16, the Chancel Choir will perform "Gloria Hallelujah" by Don Besig, and the Junior Choir, under the direction of Steve Suess, will sing "Light One Candle" by Natalie Steeh.

Dec. 23, the Chancel Choir will perform "The Jesus Gift" by Gilbert M. Martin, featuring Mrs. Linda Koenig in an alto solo.

Advent is the church season that includes the first four Sundays before Christmas. It marks the beginning of the ecclesiastical year, and starts on the Sunday nearest Nov. 30, the feast of St. Andrew, the chairman added.

Members of the community are invited to attend worship at 9 a.m. or 10:30 a.m. each week at St. John, the chairman added.

Holiday programs for Special Ed. students

The next meeting for the Parents for Special Education will be held Tuesday, Dec. 18, at 7 p.m., Central Christian Church, 2020 Johnson Road.

Bowling will begin at 1:30 p.m. on Bowland every Saturday. Bus pickups will be 1 p.m. at the Press-Record parking lot, 1815 Delmar and 1:15 p.m. at St. John's parking lot, 2801 Nameoki Road. The last day for the College for Independence will be Dec. 21, and they will resume Jan. 2, Mrs. Hahne added.

Spanish Mass set Saturday evening

Our Lady of Guadalupe Society of St. Joseph Catholic Church, 2101 State St., will sponsor the 6:30 p.m. Spanish Mass, in honor of Our Lady of Guadalupe, on Saturday, Dec. 8.

This commemorates the 43rd anniversary of the apparition of Our Lady of Guadalupe who appeared to a humble Indian called Juan Diego in Mexico on Dec. 12, 1531, according to the announcement.

The shrine was built on Tepeyac Hill in Mexico and took many years to complete. Today more people visit the Shrine of Our Lady of Guadalupe than any other shrine in the world, the church spokesman said.

Madison establishes an enterprise zone

An ordinance establishing an Enterprise Zone within the city of Madison was approved by the Madison City Council Tuesday night.

After Alderman William Gushoff read the ordinance, Alderman Don Garrett asked for a full explanation of Section Five of the five-page document relating to sales tax credits.

The paragraph on sales tax credits, in part, "Each retailer whose place of business is within the incorporated area of the city of Madison and who makes a sale of building materials to be incorporated into real estate located in the zone area by remodeling, rehabilitation or new construction may file claims for credit or refund to recover the amount of tax paid under the Municipal Retailers' Occupation Tax Act."

MAYOR SASYK explained that anyone purchasing materials to renovate a house or build a business place will not be required to pay sales tax on the materials. Also, the businessman who sells the materials and does not charge sales tax has the right to submit the necessary forms that verify he is exempt from paying the taxes since he did not charge the customer.

If, in fact, he should charge sales tax, he can then file for a refund, but would also have to refund the tax monies to the customer.

With this explanation of the section, all aldermen approved the ordinance.

UPON DESIGNATION of the enterprise zone by the Illinois Department of Commerce and Community Affairs, a Management Organization comprised of the chairman of the County Board and the mayors of Granite City, Madison and Venice will be formed. This organization will be the governing board of the Enterprise Zone and will be responsible for all decisions within the zone.

Section Seven determined guidelines for shopstealing and home-stealing and, in part, states, "Under the urban shopstealing program, the city may sell (to) a Designated Zone Organization (DZO) a structure or portion thereof it owns for a sum not to exceed $100. The DZO shall agree to renovate or remodel the property to meet the standards and level of maintenance stated in the agreement between the DZO and the city."

UNDER THE urban homestead program, the city may sell to an individual a residence or any portion of it that the city owns within the zone area for a sum of $100. The individual must agree to renovate or remodel the property to meet the standards and level of maintenance stated in the sales agreement between the individual and the city, and the individual must live in the residence for seven years. At the end of the seven-year period, the city will assign title to the property to the individual, provided satisfactory improvements to the property have been made.

GC pilot program on abuse of children

The Granite City Board of Education decided Tuesday night to participate in a program to fight sexual abuse of children.

Favorable action was taken on an anti-abuse proposal from Coordinated Youth Services.

W. Richard Brinkhoff, administrative assistant for instructional services, said child sexual abuse is an increasing problem and noted that abuse of any kind directly affects students' performance.

BOARD MEMBER David Partney described the proposal as "an excellent" addition "that there is a lot of child abuse" in the district.

Brinkhoff related that nationwide "between 60,000 and 100,000 children per year are sexually abused. In recent years, this national problem has become evident in our community."

"This year alone, two confirmed cases of sexual abuse have been found within our district, and several others are suspected."

"FUNDS TO COMBAT this problem have been made available by the State of Illinois, and CYS has applied for funding."

"Coordinated Youth is requesting the school district's help as well as that of other school systems in Madison and Bond counties."

"Total cost of the project will be covered by the grant if funding is approved."

"CYS is requesting two volunteer schools in District Nine to act as pilot schools. Two teachers in each school would attend a one-day workshop including child abuse detection information."

BRINKHOFF REPORTED that the workshop will utilize a 15-minute film, "Child Abuse and Neglect: What the Educator Sees," produced by the National Center on Child Abuse and Neglect.

The film depicts physical and behavioral indicators of physical abuse, neglect and sexual abuse, which youngsters are likely to display in a school setting.

The curriculum chosen for use with kindergarten through second grade children is "Preventing Sexual Abuse: Activities and Strategies for Those Working with Children or Adolescents," by Carol Plummer.

Brinkhoff said, "The design of the curriculum selected allows it to be easily incorporated into regular classroom work."

"THIS CURRICULUM provides the focus which, with leadership from the agency's professional staff, can mobilize volunteers, parents and school personnel to develop an effective implementation of the curriculum for use by children in grades K-2."

"And it will facilitate communication between parents, teachers and students about the nature and scope of the problem."

"The curriculum, which may be modified by the teachers taking part in the workshops, is designed for no more than five sessions of about 30 minutes each. Several of the principals have reviewed the suggested curriculum and find it suitable for children in kindergarten through the second grade."

"The principals felt that the project has enough merit to, at least, be piloted in our district."

"PARENTS WILL BE asked if they wish to have their child participate in the program, and will be invited to attend the classroom sessions."

"Follow-up with the parents will take place upon completion of the classwork."

"This is a completely voluntary program for schools, teachers and parents. A report on the pilot project will be made to the board."

"If the pilot proves successful, an effort will be made to expand it to other schools within our district."

School asbestos survey ordered

An environmental health audit of asbestos in Granite City school buildings was ordered by Special Systems, Inc., of Richmond, Ind., for an amount not exceeding $7,140.

Ryckman's Emergency Action and Control of St. Louis proposed to do the task for $18,300.

Norman S. Owca, director of finance, told the Board of Education on Tuesday that the Asbestos Abatement Act requires all Illinois public and private schools to correct by July 1, 1987, any instances in which asbestos could create a health hazard within school structures.

All buildings in District Nine are to be surveyed.

SSI plans building inspections, bulk samples, laboratory analysis of samples, exposure assessment, and related reports.

The cost projection consists of $4,800 plus $2,340 if it is necessary to analyze, at $30 apiece, six bulk samples at each of 13 buildings.

Owca ruled, "When completed, will satisfy requirements of the Environmental Protection Agency identification and notification program." The cost will be paid from the district's life safety fund tax.

If there are any asbestos problems, the report will pinpoint them, enabling them to be eliminated.

Asbestos at one time was commonly used in building construction. It later was found to be harmful to persons.

First state labor board election on union choice

By a 26 to 17 vote, Lake County public works employees won representation by AFSCME (American Federation of State, County and Municipal Employees, AFL-CIO) in the first union representation election conducted by the Illinois State Labor Relations Board (ISLRB). The ISLRB administers a new state law, effective July 1, 1984, which grants non-educational public employees the right to union representation.

"These employees voted for AFSCME representation because they want a voice on the job," said AFSCME Council 31 Director Steve Cullen. "They want pay increases, better insurance coverage, and a fair system for resolving on-the-job problems."

"We have petitions for elections pending for county employees in 13 counties, including sheriff's office employees in Lake County. We have active organizing committees in 29 of Illinois' 102 counties. And we already represent employees in 14 counties in Illinois, mostly as a result of voluntary recognition by county governments dating, in some cases, back to the 1950s."

Of the 70 petitions for representation elections filed with the ISLRB since July 1, nearly half were filed by AFSCME. The petitions are for groups of county, city, village, township and other public employees.

Madison asks that sewage treatment rates be reviewed

At Tuesday night's Madison City Council meeting, Mayor Mike Sasyk asked the council to review the rates of the Metro-East Sanitary District, to discuss the recent increase in the Lansdowne Sewage Treatment Plant bills. The city officials requested a review of the charges for Madison residents.

"Madison has the highest ratio for collections of those in the Lansdowne Treatment program, and we think that a different rate of collection should be granted to Madison so we are not paying for other cities or communities that are not paying their full share, the mayor explained."

Sasyk added, "We want a different concept of charges, individual by individual, of the cities and think the cost should be reduced for Madison and Greathouse agreed to compile a report on the request."

"Today Mike Macek, (Alderman) Tom Gordon and I have been negotiating with people to get more property annexation to the city and will have a detailed report ready for the next council meeting," the mayor said.

The aldermen also approved paying city bills in the amount of $106,000 for the period of Nov. 20 to Dec. 4.

Opryland seeks Illinois talent

Representatives from Opryland, the Nashville, Tenn., theme park that highlights live musical productions, will make an audition stop in Champaign-Urbana, Saturday, Dec. 8, during their 29-city tour. The coast-to-coast audition tour stretches from Los Angeles to Boston and continues through January.

Opryland will hire approximately 350 singers, dancers, dance captains, conductor/pianists, musicians, stage managers and technicians for shows staged in the park, at industrial shows and conventions, and for performances on the General Jackson, a multi-million dollar showboat that will be in operation at Opryland USA by mid-June.

The Champaign-Urbana auditions will be from noon to 4:30 p.m. in Room A of the Illinois Union at the University of Illinois. No appointments are necessary for the open auditions. There will be one other audition stop in Illinois, in Chicago, Jan. 16.

John Haywood, Opryland's entertainment manager, offers these suggestions to those auditioning: "When you audition, it is very important that you're relaxed. Do the material you feel you do well, material you are comfortable with. Most importantly, do what you do best and do it first."

According to Haywood, Opryland is looking for performers proficient in virtually all styles of American music, with versatility being the key factor. Both non-country and country entertainers are being sought.

Conducting the auditions will be the park's entertainment director, manager, choreographer, show director and musical director.

Singers should be prepared to perform two numbers, one ballad and one more upbeat song. A piano accompanist is part of the audition team, and singers should bring music in the proper key.

Dancers will be asked to perform a routine of no more than one minute. A record player and a cassette tape player will be available at the open-call auditions.

Instrumentalists will be asked to sight read, and woodwind players must be proficient doublers. Conductors/pianists must submit a resume and references, and a piano audition will be required. Stage managers and technicians should bring resumes and references.

Stage managers will be interviewed at the auditions, while technicians' resumes will be forwarded to Opryland's technical director.

"Performers whom we hire are some of the best in the nation, and versatility is a key factor. In many cases, we need singers who can dance, and dancers who can sing. And we certainly look for both country and non-country performers," said Bob Whitaker, Opryland's entertainment director.

Performers who are cast are placed in one of two companies. The first company begins performances on March 30 when the park opens for spring weekend operation. The second company joins the first for the park's season of day operation in summer. Performers drawn from both groups work during the fall weekend season.

Opryland is part of Opryland USA Inc., an entertainment facility that also contains the Opryland Hotel, the Grand Ole Opry and The Nashville Network, a national cable television network. These auditions are not for the Grand Ole Opry.

Is this the best way for you to choose a doctor?

Now there's a better way to find the right doctor for you.

It's St. Elizabeth Medical Center's Physician Referral Service. This service will put you in touch with a family practitioner, surgeon or specialist from our staff with the qualifications and background you need. There is no charge for Physician Referral Service.

The next time you need a doctor, give us a call.

Agency seeks homes for teenage refugees

The Lutheran Child and Family Services office of Belleville is seeking foster homes for teenage refugees from Indochina. The majority of these children are boys, ages 11 to 17, with possible availability of younger and female children.

Officials say the children are wards of Illinois and not available for adoption. To offset the costs of foster care, a monthly stipend is provided to each foster family, in addition to medical and dental expenses.

Families living in Madison, St. Clair, Bond, Randolph, Washington, Clinton and Monroe counties who are interested in the foster-care program are being encouraged to call 1-234-8901 for more information.
